POLITICAL WAR THROWS STATE INTO TURMOIL

G. O. P. Can't Agree on Convention

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Complications that threaten to endanger the Illinois Republican electoral ticket are imminent as a result of a deadlock that exists between the two state factions concerning the state convention scheduled for Tuesday.

The only detail settled, following a conference today between Secretary of State Emmerson, spokesman for the Oglesby forces, and Len Small, speaking for the city hall ticket, is that there will be no convention on that date. Mr. Small declares the convention will meet perfunctorily and adjourn until Sept. 28. Mr. Emmerson, backed up by an opinion from Attorney General Brundage, says the convention is a dead letter by reason of the Supreme court opinion knocking out the direct primary law.

Position of Thompson Foes.

The anti-Thompson delegates will not attend the session Tuesday nor will they attend any other meeting that purports to be an adjourned session of the defunct May convention.

With the nomination for governorship in doubt neither Oglesby nor Small wants a showdown until the real result is known.

The question of the electors is the point connected with the proceedings. The electors were named at the May convention, which adjourned until next Tuesday, having failed to adopt a state platform or to nominate the three candidates for trustees of the University of Illinois.

An agreement probably could be reached without difficulty between the factions regarding the trustees and the state committee, but neither side wants the fight over the Thompson platform reopened.

Fight City Hall Electors.

As to the electors, that is another thing. The point involved is that the ten electors from the Chicago district were named by the city hall delegates elected at the April primaries, which have been held invalid by the Supreme court. The suggestion was made in statehouse circles today that these ten men, if permitted to go to the ballots, might follow any whim of the city hall when the time arrived to vote for president.

The anti-Thompson leaders, it is understood, are prepared to resist any attempt of the city hall to permit these nominees for electors to go on the ballots.

Small Confident of Victory.

Mr. Small said tonight that he is confident of having been nominated for governor. "My plurality, according to my own figures, will be better than 10,000," he said. Official figures received from a half dozen downstate counties increased materially John G. Oglesby's lead as compared with unofficial figures heretofore reported.

His managers at the capital are still figuring that he will go to the Cook county line with better than 90,000 to the good over Mr. Small.

MAN AND WOMAN ABANDON BABY IN HOTEL ROOM

A four weeks old boy abandoned at the Depot hotel, 122 South Canal street, yesterday, was taken to St. Vincent's orphanage. Mrs. Emma Fellows proprietress of the hotel, told the police that about midnight Saturday a man and a woman each about 24 years old, with the baby, registered as "John Guest and wife." Yesterday morning the woman inquired for the nearest restaurant. After she left, her husband followed her.

When Mrs. Fellows went to their room, she found the infant asleep. A note which read, "Will be back in a few minutes" lay on a dresser.

When the couple did not return several hours later the police were notified. The police believe the couple came from some town outside of Chicago for the purpose of abandoning the baby.

BERLIN, Sept. 19.—"Deliver up your weapons," great posters all over Berlin have been shouting for some time past. Wednesday was the first disarmament day. Government depots were established in various parts of the city and at nearly all of them there were long lines of persons waiting to dispose of their war trophies.

SEEK GIRL WHO SAW MAN CHOKE RIVAL TO DEATH

Cohen Holds Levee in Police Station.

An unidentified woman is being sought by the Wabash avenue police as a witness to the fight in the apartment of Miss Gene Lawrence at 4121 Grand boulevard Saturday night, which ended when Max Cohen, former naval aviator and the son of a wealthy loop jeweler, had strangled David Slavin, traveling salesman, of 4213 Sheridan road, his rival for Miss Lawrence's affections.

Miss Lawrence admitted yesterday that there had been a witness of the battle besides herself, but she refused to reveal the woman's identity. The latter is being sought to explain certain circumstances in connection with the tragedy, including why it was necessary for young Cohen to strangle his rival in order to protect himself.

Cohen Uninjured.

Examination of Slavin's body revealed finger nail marks about the throat and numerous bruises on the body and face, while only a slight mark under Cohen's right eye indicated that he had taken part in the battle.

Detectives further declared the condition of the furniture in Mrs. Lawrence's flat did not bear witness to such a desperate encounter as that which Cohen said had preceded his rival's death. In the original stories given out by the police, the interior of the apartment—which was kept locked yesterday—was represented as having been reduced to ruins.

Last night detectives said that only one or two chairs had been overturned, and that the bric-a-brac remained virtually intact.

Police Captain Mystified.

"I don't understand how he could have killed Slavin," the captain asserted. "I don't see how any man can hang on to another's throat long enough to strangle him. It doesn't seem human."

Israel Slavin, a brother of the dead man, spoke in behalf of the Slavin family.

"He didn't have to kill my poor brother to defend himself," said Israel Slavin. "It takes nine minutes to choke a man to death. And the victim becomes inert and harmless long before that time. My brother's only fault was that he loved that woman too much and couldn't understand why she didn't love him and never would."

Miss Lawrence was taken to Detention Home No. 3 and carefully guarded. No one was allowed to visit her save Dr. J. B. Matheson, 4710 Grand boulevard, who had been called to the flat Saturday night.

Man Called to Flat, Released.

Elmer Loeb, 1380 Hyde Park boulevard, who was called to the apartment by Miss Lawrence—she got him on the phone at a poolroom in Fifty-first street while the two rivals fought—was released after Enright had questioned him, and when Dr. Joseph Springer, the coroner's physician, promised to be responsible for his appearance at the inquest. More than one hour in all elapsed after Slavin's death before the police were notified.

At the station Cohen seemed more concerned in a new powder puff he has designed for women than in the death of his rival.

Holds Levee in Station.

All day yesterday Cohen held levee at the station and sent the police on his errands. A TRIBUNE reporter took a snapshot of him and broke up the pleasure of his whole day. By actual count more than 200 friends called at Cohen's cell—and he told them about Slavin and his own invention.

"It's a 'Splash Me' doll that is also a face powder receptacle," he said. "I learned only yesterday the patent papers are all set, but this may hold me up a bit. I don't expect to be here long, though."

Repeats Story of Killing.

Cohen repeated last night his story of the killing.

"I had taken Miss Lawrence's dog for a walk," he said. "I saw Slavin coming. I went into the house. He came, too. He demanded to be let in, pounded on the door, shouted. When Miss Lawrence opened the door he sprang at me. I defended myself as best I could. Finally my hands found his throat. I remember only that I fought for my life—I knew it was my life or his. Then suddenly I saw Loeb, and I let go of Slavin's throat. But he didn't move. He was dead."

"I knew Slavin for a great many years," Capt. Enright said, "but I never knew him to pay attention to any women. Miss Lawrence had him arrested about a week ago on a charge that he was annoying her. I asked him how it happened. He began to cry and told me how much he loved Miss Lawrence.

"When she failed to prosecute him, I forgot all about the matter."

CLEW TO BOMB IN EXPLOSIVES STORE IN N. Y.

Mysterious Shortage Uncovered.

BY CHARLES A. SLOAN.

New York, Sept. 19.—[Special.]—A clew to the source of the explosive which Thursday noon rocked New York's financial district was unearthed today by the fire department after a three day search of all establishments carrying explosives as a stock in trade.

The location and name of the establishment were not made public. A fire department official made the simple announcement that "a suspicious shortage of explosives" had been found and that "there was no explanation of where they went." It was further stated that all the facts had been put in possession of the department of justice and police officials.

Comb New Jersey Towns.

Department of justice operatives and police tonight were searching New Jersey towns. The clews are believed to relate to the identity of the horse and wagon which brought the explosive to the financial district.

John Haggerty, Park avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-ninth street, today identified the body of the horse as an animal he had shod some time in the last two or three weeks. Positive identification was made through two new horseshoes found on the animal.

Haggerty was unable to remember any details regarding the owner. The animal was shod at the shop of Finnegan & Kyle, 82 New Chambers street, where Haggerty is employed.

U. S. Surveys Tresca's Past.

Carlos Tresca, well known I. W. W. leader and prominent anarchist, turned up here today, speaking at the Russian People's house, a radical meeting place raided many times by the police.

His past connections with the notorious Galliani anarchist gang have caused inquiries by department of justice officials and others as to his possible connection with the Thursday explosion.

No direct evidence has as yet been obtained that would be sufficient to hold him in custody—he has the best of legal talent—and his seizure at this time would be futile, it was said. It was learned, however, that he will be kept under surveillance.

The body of a man, brown haired and blue eyed, from 22 to 24 years old, the only victim of the explosion so far unidentified, is creating somewhat of a puzzle in police circles. Some officials believe he was the driver of the explosive laden wagon.

Expert from Chicago There.

The arrival of Detective Sergeant John Gegan of the New York police bomb squad and perhaps the best known authority on radicals in the city brought order out of chaos in the search.

Gegan has been in Chicago and the west for some time. He recently arrested Lloyd H. Wilson, well known Chicago bond broker, in connection with the Arnstein bond theft.

Alexander J. Brailovsky, Russian editor of the Russky Golos, the "Russian Voice," arrested on Saturday on a report that he had been seen near the scene of the explosion within an hour of the blast, was still held today. His status, however, has changed.

The police in their questioning failed to obtain anything which might indicate Brailovsky had any knowledge of the source of the explosion. He was then rearrested by Sergt. Gegan as an undesirable alien and held for action by the federal authorities.

Fifty-three victims of the bomb are still in hospitals throughout the city. There have been no further deaths, however.

Fischer Reaches Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Edwin P. Fischer, returning voluntarily from Hamilton, Ont., to New York to submit to questioning in connection with the notes he sent giving warning of the Wall street explosion, passed through Buffalo tonight. He was accompanied by two New York detectives and an agent of the United States department of justice.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 19.—Delegates from many states attending a meeting of the Jewish Coöperative Society of America here today adopted resolutions calling on the United States government to free all political prisoners and to recognize the soviet government of Russia.

THE RESTLESS AGE

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Harry Ellgate and Emily Harbridge quickly became friends.

Harry at once discovered Emily's interest in Tom Wickham and his instinct showed him the swiftest road to her good graces. Tom was the bond of sympathy, so he talked of Tom and told her what a splendid fellow Tom was.

At the end of the first evening at the Community Center dance Emily felt as if they had been friends for years.

But if Harry had won a friend, he had also made a clever and resourceful enemy. Bud Andrews watched gloomily the rapid growth of Emily's interest in Ellgate. He was conscious that people were casting amused glances at him, and his thoughts grew bitter.

Gossip is alert and active in small communities, and next day it was buzzing about Emily and the "Beau Brummel of the Barnyard."

Ellgate was too shrewd to force his attentions on Emily. He did not see her again until the dance a week later. Once more they talked of Tom, and those who watched her eager interest and shining eyes attributed it to a different emotion. And another aspect of the little triangle set gossip guessing. Bud Andrews seemed very friendly toward his rival.

At the end of a month Harry's face had lost the marks of dissipation. Prohibition as practiced in the country is not the farce that cities make it, and his eyes became clear and his muscles hard from healthy work and regular hours.

He was clever enough not to put on airs. He dressed quietly and was invariably good natured. Such hostility as might have been engendered by his splendid car and his air of city breeding was swept away when he next appeared in overalls on a load of manure. People couldn't stay mad under these circumstances.

He took his part agreeably in the activities of the community—played on the local ball team, helped organize a dramatic club, sang in the glee club, and occasionally helped out with a fair line of dance music on the piano. In a month he had established himself in a more wholesome natural life than he had ever known in the city.

Those who predicted the speedy failure of his "experiment" were surprised to find him staying on and on.

One evening Mr. Wickham and his wife were sitting on their porch. The day's work was done and their rocking chairs creaked in pleasant rhythm. The air was soft with the fragrance of summer and flowers.

"Where's Mr. Ellgate?" asked Mrs. Wickham in a low voice.

"He went up to his room right after supper. I guess he's going out."

There was a pause. Then Mrs. Wickham added significantly:

"He was over to the Harbridges again last night."

Her husband said nothing, but his wife knew where his thoughts were.

"I wish Tom would come back." Mrs. Wickham's voice was full of the wistful note that always came when she mentioned her boy.

"His pride won't let him, mother. He feels he hasn't made good in the city. It would nigh kill him to come back now."

"Dear, dear, everything's topsy-turvy. Here's Harry, cut out for city life, and he's down here working on a farm. And Tom, who's a natural out of doors boy, is set on staying cooped up in the city. For the life of me I can't——"

"Sh!"

Harry Ellgate came out on the porch. His overalls had been replaced by a trim, comfortable suit whose quiet simplicity bespoke a fashionable and expensive tailor.

"Spooning?" he smiled.

"Well, not exactly."

"Great night for it," said Harry. "I thought I'd urge my old bus out for a little ride. I'll be back early."

A few minutes later they saw his car glide noiselessly out of the barnyard and disappear at a leisurely pace down the road toward the Harbridges.

For a long time the farmer and his wife rocked in silence. Nearly a half hour passed before either spoke.

"Do you think Emily likes him?" Mrs. Wickham's troubled words showed where her thoughts had been.

"He's over there a good deal lately."

"I do wish Tom would come home," sighed Mrs. Wickham. "People are beginning to pity him." Her voice broke. "I can hardly bear it."

Long after they retired her thoughts continued marching back and forth in wearisome repetition. The big clock in the dining room struck hour after hour, echoing in the silent house.

At half-past 12 she touched her husband's arm.

"I haven't heard Harry come in," she said. "Do you suppose something has happened?"

FIRE PERILS SOX BALL PARK THIRD TIME IN TWO DAYS

Fire broke out in the Sox ball park last night for the third time in two days, and caused a damage of approximately $1,000 in the left field bleachers.

An unidentified boy said he saw three Negroes running away from the park shorty before the fire was discovered, but the watchman, Jack McCuddy, discredits this testimony, saying the boy has a grudge against him. He believes the fire started from a cigar or cigaret butt.

Louis Comiskey and Battalion Chief David Mahoney also believe with the watchman, and Comiskey derides the idea that the three fires might have originated from a plot.

There was a slight blaze in the afternoon which was quenched with a few buckets of water; and a small fire Saturday evening which was put out by the department.

CHICAGO-OMAHA AIR MAIL PILOT HANCS UP RECORD

Irwin S. Amberg, air mail pilot, yesterday hung up a new record for the Omaha-Chicago division of the mail service and placed himself among the leaders in the race for THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE $1,000 prize when he flew from Omaha to Chicago, a distance of 440 miles, in three hours and twenty-nine minutes.

The record is based on flying time. Amberg was held up an hour at Iowa City, Ia., by a broken gas connection.

Amberg has covered 4,400 miles during the last thirteen days. The newspaper prizes go to the air mail pilots who cover the most territory with an average speed of eighty miles an hour during the first six months of the service, which opened on Sept. 8, from New York to San Francisco.

Britain and Miners Again at Odds on Wage Raise

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The coal miners and the government have reached another impasse. They are deadlocked over the question of increased wages, the government refusing to guarantee the increase unless at the same time the workmen will guarantee increased production.

INDUSTRIAL WAR IN ITALY ENDING

Giolitti Plan Winning Settlement.

ROME, Sept. 19.—On invitation of Premier Giolitti the employers and metal workers have sent representatives to Rome to continue the negotiations on the points not yet agreed upon looking to a settlement of the strike. An accord already has been reached on the following points in dispute:

1. There is to be an increase in wages of 4 lire daily.
2. A week's vacation yearly with full pay for all workmen who have served at least twelve months.
3. After three years' service men dismissed shall be entitled to two days' full pay for each year of service.
4. Seventy-five per cent of the increase contemplated is to be considered an allowance for the high cost of living, and power is to be given to decrease it proportionately in case there is a diminution in the cost of living.

Points of Difference.

The points on which an accord has not been reached are:

1. Claims by the workmen that they shall be paid for the period of the strike and of the occupation of the works.
2. Refusal by the masters to reemploy those persons guilty of violence against the masters or having damaged their property.
3. The date from which the increase in wages contemplated is to be calculated.

The impression prevails that a complete accord will be reached shortly.

Hope for New Laws.

Premier Giolitti today expressed the hope of being able to reopen the chamber of deputies during the first fortnight of November, instead of at the end of that month, as has been customary.

A number of Socialist deputies today visited the premier and insisted on an immediate reopening of parliament in order to bring up a discussion of their bill on the new status of workmen and the relations of the men and masters inside manufactories.

The premier replied that discussion of these subjects would take place on a bill which the government would present to parliament after it has received a report from the commission of employers and workmen.

Radicals Fight Settlement.

MILAN, Italy, Sept. 19.—The anarchists and syndicalists are waging a bitter campaign against the Confederation of Labor and the Socialist leaders who have consented to come to terms with the employers and the government in settling the strike of metal workers.

Wealthy Men Helped by Cox to Avoid Draft

New York, Sept. 20, 3 a. m.—[Special.]—The New York Tribune this morning prints the following dispatch from its correspondent in Washington:

"Files of the war department, just become accessible to the public, reveal that Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio played an important part in obtaining exemption from military service for James G. Scripps, son of Edward W. Scripps, publisher of the Cleveland Press, Toledo Bee, and other newspapers.

"The case of James G. Scripps, as well as that of Robert P. Scripps, a younger brother, attracted nation-wide attention during the war, but the secrecy surrounding such matters at that time prevented the public from learning what influences were brought to bear to keep the two sons of the multimillionaire publisher, who now lives in California, out of army service.

Letter from Gov. Cox.

"In the draft record of the Scripps case is a letter written by Gov. Cox, dated July 11, 1917, and addressed to Earl E. Martin of Cleveland, editorial director of the Scripps papers, in which Cox declares that the withdrawal of James G. Scripps from active connection with the Scripps papers would 'greatly impair' their efficiency.

"This letter was sent on Nov. 30, 1917, to J. J. Boree, adjutant general of California, in the effort of the Scripps attorneys to induce the draft board of San Diego county to certify an appeal to the president after it had twice rejected young Scripps' claim for exemption on industrial grounds.

Case Goes to President.

"Boree's activity in behalf of Scripps resulted finally in the draft board sending the case to Washington for review by the president.

"It is recalled Edward W. Scripps and several men influential in his organization, came to Wasington, called on Secretary Baker and brought pressure to bear with a view to securing reversal of the local and district draft boards in the cases of both the Scripps sons.

"On May 10, 1918, the records show, the action of the local and district draft boards in California was set aside, and James G. Scripps released from all obligation of military service.

Brother Also Released.

"Robert P. Scripps was similarly released on appeal to the president after his local in Butler county, Ohio, and the Ohio district board had ordered him into uniform at Camp Sherman.

POLICEMAN OFF DUTY, SHOT BY 2 HIGHWAYMEN

John J. Kelly, 4313 Kammerling avenue, a policeman attached to the Rogers Park station, was slightly wounded by two men who attempted to hold him up while he was returning home from visiting friends late last night. Kelly, off duty and in plain clothes, was crossing Hirsch boulevard at Keeler avenue when the two men appeared and flashed a gun. Kelly grabbed at the man and was shot in the hand. The other man hit him on the head and then both men ran.

The highwaymen, who were described as being between 18 and 20 years old, are thought by the Austin police to be the same who have figured in several holdups in the same neighborhood lately.

MILITARY PLAN TO PUT TEETH INTO COVENANT

Member Nations to Enforce Decrees.

BY HENRY WALES

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Sept. 19.—THE TRIBUNE has possession of the report by Sig. Tittoni, the Italian minister, to the supreme council of the league of nations which led to the deliberations of that body on a general staff for the prosecution of war against offending states.

The report not only sets at rest the stories sent to America denying THE TRIBUNE article on this subject some weeks ago but also discloses in detail the teeth which it is proposed to put, after all, in the league of nations—the teeth which the Paris peace conference rejected when they were proposed by Leon Bourgeois.

During his stay in Paris Col. House examined this document and said that clearly it provides for a general staff, although that term is not mentioned.

The supreme council adopted Sig. Tittoni's plan and it now goes before the assembly of the league of nations for its approval. With that approval it will begin to function.

Here Is Report.

"Article 16 of the covenant," says Sig. Tittoni's report, "deals with the application of the international economic and financial blockade; that is to say, with the immediate severance of all trade, financial, or other relations with the state which has had recourse to war; the prohibition of all financial, commercial, or personal intercourse between the nationals of the covenant breaking state and the nationals of any other state, whether a member of the league or not.

"The application of this weapon is intended to safeguard the peace of the world, and the league of nations may have recourse to this means of coercion without employing other means of constraint, or it may at the same time employ military force.

"As soon as the league has decided, in principle, to have recourse to the application of article 16 of the covenant the various measures should be taken immediately by all the states, and the question, therefore, is rather one of a series of similar measures to be taken simultaneously than of collective and united action.

Common Action Needed.

"From what precedes it is clear that the measures to be taken must, in order to be efficacious, in the first place be decided by common agreement and applied simultaneously in all the different countries. In the second place, they should be closely coördinated and this coördination can only be realized if the states come to a previous agreement as to the necessary legislative and executive steps which must be taken.

"Thirdly, organizations must be established which can insure this immediate and perfect coöperation between the different countries as soon as the measures laid down in article 16 have to be taken.

"It must also be possible to control the complete application of the coercive weapon in view until such moment as it becomes useless.

Measure of Mutual Support.

"In the fourth place, these organizations should be able to take all useful steps to enable the members of the league to give each other mutual support in the general interest, and at the same time to minimize the loss and inconvenience which the blockade might entail for each of them.

"In order that there may be no doubt as to the significance of article 16 of the covenant, I think it useful to specify the exact meaning which, according to the principles of international law, one ought to give to the declaration of paragraph 3 [a] of the memorandum by the secretary general [No. 18], which states that it will be necessary to take steps to prevent the states, not members of the league, from trading with the offending state.

Declaration of Blockade.

"In my view, it should be clear that the states, members of the league of nations, who declare the blockade have the right to render it effective against all states, including those who are not members of the league, but they have not the right to force the states who do not form part of the league to declare the blockade themselves.

"Further, this question will not longer be of importance when all the states, without exception, belong to the league of nations. This is the final end which we endeavor to attain and which will give to us all the moral authority which should be our principal strength and of which measures of coercion should only constitute an auxiliary and strengthening support.

Advance Plan Needed.

"It is obvious that all the measures to be taken and the means of putting article 16 into execution must be considered in advance. If the line of action to be taken is considered in advance, without waiting for the moment which action becomes necessary, the measures to be taken will clearly be more efficacious, and will have a speedier effect. Since, however, the solution of the problem which I have thus briefly outlined is of supreme general interest for all the states, members of the league of nations, I think that the assembly would be better qualified than the council to deal with this question, and I have the honor to submit to you the following proposals:

"The council decides to place upon the agenda of the first assembly of the league of nations the consideration of the necessary measures to ensure the application of article 16 of the covenant. With this aim in view, it will propose to the assembly that, as a preliminary measure, an international blockade commission should be appointed under the authority of the first assembly for the purpose of studying the problem and settling the general plan of action, the organization of the more permanent machinery required and the principles on which it should work."

GENOA POLICE FIND TWO MORE HIDDEN BOMBS

GENOA, Sept. 18.—[Delayed.]—Two high explosive bombs similar to the one that exploded in the stock exchange here on Friday have been found by the police in a livery stable, but so far the persons who hid them there have not been discovered. The authorities are closely following every clew, feeling they may arrest the perpetrator of the outrage and possibly reveal an international terrorist plot which may perhaps extend to the United States.

Six Hungarians have been arrested here since the explosion of the bomb. They have plenty of money, but none of them had identification papers. They are said to be Communists, and were arrested at a hotel alleged to be a rendezvous for radicals.

Police officials have ascertained the bomb had been made recently, and, for this reason, there is some suspicion that it was turned out by a plant occupied by workmen. Attempts have been made to blow up several fashionable restaurants, one of which was located in the basement of the Stock Exchange building.

GREECE, BRITAIN DISAGREE OVER TURKEY CUT-UP

London Is Apt to Refuse Athens' Demands.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

(Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 19.—M. Canilopulos, Greek high commissioner at Constantinople, declares that Premier Venizelos has demanded that the allies turn over the occupation of Constantinople to the Greek army; make Pontos a free city under Greek administration, and permit the Greeks to continue their operations in Anatolia.

The allies as yet have not replied to these demands, but in British circles it is believed the reply surely will be unfavorable.

Must Continue Advance.

"The Greeks must continue to advance until Afiun-Karahissar and the Bagdad railway line are in our possession," said M. Canilopulos today. "Our front is difficult to maintain and the coming rains will make it almost impossible for us to supply our troops without control of the railway. Abandonment of the offensive now would make for the failure of the entire Anatolian expedition as it was agreed on by the Boulogne conference."

Tommies in Constantinople.

The British have withdrawn half their troops from Ismid, sending the Indian troops to Mesopotamia after withdrawing them from Constantinople and replacing them with Tommies owing to propaganda being circulated against Indians fighting the Mussulmans.

Turkish Nationalists who attacked Aleppo last Thursday succeeded in cutting the railway between that city and Alexandretta, according to a dispatch from Beirut, which reported 100 French casualties.

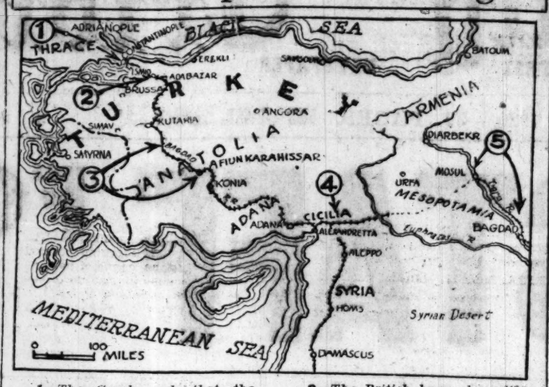

LA SALLE STREET STILL IS UNDER POLICE GUARD

The special detail of detectives assigned to the La Salle street financial district by Chief Garrity following the New York bomb explosion was on duty last night. The detail will be continued for some time.

The subtreasury and the federal reserve bank are guarded by government agents.

Andrew Leilatchen, 51 East Chestnut street, who has been held in custody since his attempt to visit Chief Garrity on Saturday, will be examined as to his sanity today.

The European Grab Bag

1—The Greeks ask that the allies turn over Constantinople to their army, and that Pontus be a free city under Greek administration. It is expected that the allies will refuse.

Great Britain has withdrawn the native troops from the city and replaced them with white soldiers, who are more dependable. Religious propaganda is given as the cause.

2—The British have also withdrawn half their troops from Ismid.

3—The Greeks ask a free hand for further operations in Anatolia, claiming that they must hold Afrim Kara Hissar and the Bagdad railroad.

ADMIRAL KNAPP ON A 'DELICATE' MISSION IN HAITI

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Admiral Harry S. Knapp, retired, of the United States navy, has been sent to Haiti on a delicate and difficult diplomatic and political mission—an effort to bring about an adjustment between the Haitian government, the Banco National, the stock of which was recently acquired by the National City Bank of New York, and other conflicting interests there, in an effort, if possible, to improve political and financial conditions in the black republic.

That Admiral Knapp has been sent on such a missoin, representing the state more than the navy department, was definitely learned tonight.

Gen. John A. Lejeune, commandant of the marine corps, has also been in Haiti for the last two weeks, but his mission is to inspect and report on the status of the American marine force of occupation in Haiti and to report to the secretary of the navy. Gen. Lejeune's mission is not political, but he will sift all the allegations of "slavery" and other charges made against the marine forces there.

HARDING AND COX FOR UNIVERSAL PHYSICAL WORK

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—Support of the movement for universal physical education is expressed by Senator Harding and Gov. Cox in letters made public tonight by the National Physical Education service. The letters were in response to an inquiry by the service.

Senator Harding pointed out that the war registration disclosed that between 25 and 30 per cent of the young men examined were incapacitated for service and that examination of children in the public schools has shown nearly 50 per cent with minor or major physical deficiencies. The senator added:

"I believe, therefore, that a necessary task is before us—we must remedy that condition. We must strengthen our national health service, we must not allow that service to become dictatorial and bureaucratic, but we must use it to educate and stimulate action by our communities and our citizenship."

DNIEPER TO SEA WATCHWORD OF NEW OFFENSIVE

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 19.—Last night Gen. Wrangel crossed the railway at several points, occupying Elizavetpol, Obitocho, Chernigow, and Verbovo. The objective of the new offensive is the establishment of a line between the Dneiper and Mariupol, passing through Oriekhov.

THE WRANGEL MACHINE.

SEVASTOPOL, Sept. 19.—Numerous insurgent bands are operating in south Russia independently of Gen. Wrangel. Private intelligence received today from Col. de Waldeck, a former czarist regular, now in Paris, describes the position and activities of these bands.

Gen. Makhno, who has just joined Gen. Wrangel, has 70,000 partisans operating in the territory between Alexandrov and Ekaterinoslav.

About 10,000 men under Gen. Paclenka hold Odessa, Radelnala, and Bierzoula and several communities on the Dnieper river. Gen. Tutunuk's division has control of Ouman, Tarachtcha, Beloia, and Cercov, while Gen. Omelchenko is occupying Chercasi, Smela, and Schpola.

Bands under Gen. Volynets occupy Grobly and, with the troops of Volovh and Golovery are terrorizing the country north of Gitcmir between Kiev and Korosten.

The districts of Fostov and Fasatine are occupied by bolshevist bands which have no connection with Moscow and which hold Berditchev, Jmerinka, Roscourrov and Litine.

All these forces constitute opposition to the bolsheviki which Gen. Wrangel and his partisans hope to consolidate in their favor.

LYON & HEALY — Everything Known in Music

Which Is the Finest Musical Instrument in the World?

A young man astonished even us with our 56 years of experience by saying in his opinion the finest musical instrument was an ordinary hand saw, such as is used by any carpenter. Furthermore, he offered to prove it. He had the saw right with him. After sawing a board to show there was no deception, he confided to us that he had been one of the Stars of the Ziegfeld Roof Garden for six months. Then he took out a small violin bow and began to play on his saw.

Really there is something in the statement that the voice in the saw is more flexible than that of a prima donna and that it contains a larger massing of overtones than the whippoorwill. Wagner would have loved it. So we engaged this young man, Mr. Samuel Pasco Moore, and he is playing in our Concert Hall, main floor. You are invited to hear him, and we can promise the music lovers a new thrill. There is no charge or obligation of any kind.

JAPS' FUTURE IN U. S. UP TO NEXT ADMINISTRATION

Termination of 1911 Pact May Be Asked.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Termination of the treaty of 1911 with Japan, legalizing Japanese immigration into the United States and the leasing of land by Japanese, is a question that is destined to be pressed upon the next administration as a result of the race issue developing serious proportions on the Pacific coast.

So long as this treaty remains in effect the exclusion of Japanese will be illegal and the United States will be compelled to continue to rely for protection from the "yellow peril" on the "gentlemen's agreement" which the Californians charge is being evaded by the Japanese.

The treaty is to remain in effect until 1923 unless terminated before that time on six months' notice by either party.

Provisions in Treaty.

Article 1 of the treaty provides that "the citizens or subjects of each of the high contracting parties shall have liberty to enter, travel, and reside in the territories of the other, to carry on trade, wholesale and retail, to own or lease and occupy houses, manufactories, warehouses and shops, to employ agents of their choice, to lease land for residential and commercial purposes, and generally to do anything incident to or necessary for trade upon the same terms as native citizens or subjects, submitting themselves to the laws and regulations there established."

The right to own land for any purpose and to lease land for agricultural purposes was omitted from the treaty, and the California law prohibiting the ownership and restricting the leasing of land by aliens not eligible to citizenship, as are the Japanese, is not in contravention thereof.

Next Step by California.

The evasion of this law through corporations and trustees for American born Japanese children, who are American citizens, the Californians plan to stop through additional legislation to be submitted to a referendum at the November elections. Gov. Stephens asserts that this proposed legislation does not conflict with the treaty.

There is a growing conviction, however, not confined to the Pacific coast, that sooner or later the "unassimilable race" question must be dealt with fundamentally by terminating the "gentlemen's agreement" and excluding by statute aliens not eligible to citizenship as well as withholding citizenship from American born children of such aliens. Termination of the treaty would be necessary to effect the first, a constitutional amendment the second of these ends.

How Candidates Stand.

Harding—With a new realization of the necessity of developing a soul distinctly American in this republic, we favor such modifications of our immigration laws and such changes in our international understandings, and such a policy relating to those who come among us, as will guarantee to the citizens of this republic not only assimilability of alien born but the adoption of all who come of American standards, economy and otherwise, and a full consecration to American practices and ideals.

Cox—God Almighty provided that the fathers of America should be white men. They builded the ideals on which the republic will live. Those ideals should be maintained. Those from other shores who are not disposed to subscribe to that doctrine have the privilege of going back where they came from.

Harding Is More Specific.

In these statements Senator Harding is more specific and definite than is Gov. Cox. The Republican candidate utters a declaration that can only be interpreted as advocacy of the termination of the treaty with Japan and the exclusion of the Japanese by statute. If Gov. Cox has any definite idea of policy he would pursue if elected in dealing with the question he carefully avoided stating it.

ANNOUNCE RULES FOR IMMIGRANTS INTO PALESTINE

LONDON, Sept. 19.—[Jewish Telegraphic Agency.] — The conditions which will govern the entry of immigrants into Palestine, just made public by the administration of the district, are contained in dispatches from Jerusalem today. Each immigrant must possess a passport visé by the British consul of his city, ample proof that he will be able to sustain himself for at least a year and a certificate as to his physical fitness.

All ports of entry into Palestine will be supervised strictly by immigration officials already appointed, and every immigrant admitted into the country will have to register with the local police within fifteen days of landing. Tourists and pilgrims will not be required to register.

Sir Herbert L. Samuel, the British high commissioner, is vested with the right to expel any immigrant within five years from the date of his arrival if he has broken the laws of the country or in the interest of the state. The regulations do not apply to those residing in Palestine prior to the war.

Luxembourg Duchess Now Novice in Carmelite Order

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]
[Copyright: 1920.]

MILAN, Sept. 19.—Clad in a simple black dress, the young Grand Duchess Maria Adelaide of Luxembourg arrived at Modena, where she drove straight to the Carmelite convent of St. Teresa to enter upon her novitiate, or preparation for membership, in the order. The grand duchess is accompanied by her mother and sister, but the rules exclude the presence of relatives at the ceremony of initiation.

A Roman Holiday

Gen. Leonard Wood last night was made grand officer of the Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus, at the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the day Rome became the capital of the new and united Italy. The ceremony was held in the auditorium of the municipal pier, and was the climax of a day of patriotic Italian and American exercises.

The decoration was conferred by Col. Vittorio di Bernezzo, military attaché of the Italian embassy at Washington, on behalf of the Italian king. Count Julio Bolognesi, Italian consul; Judge Bernard Barasa, Montaville Flowers, Paolo Parisi, and others spoke.

There was a special concert under the direction of Maestro G. Vecchione.

German Finance Minister Resigns, London Is Told

LONDON, Sept. 19.—Dr. Wirth, German minister of finance, has resigned, says a Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. It is said he left office as a protest against claims of post and railway officers for higher wages without a simultaneous increase in taxes being authorized.

LEAGUE LAUDED IN FINN-SWEDISH ISLAND DISPUTE

PARIS, Sept. 19.—[By the Associated Press.]—The league of nations, through its intervention in the Aland islands question between Sweden and Finland, has proved its right to live as an effective means of preventing future wars growing out of international disputes, Hjalmar Branting, prime minister of Sweden, said today.

"I will not use the word 'war,' but the situation between Sweden and Finland was tense," Premier Branting declared. "The council of the league, through its cautious but prompt action, has dissipated the feeling and Sweden believes the council will settle the matter to the satisfaction of both countries."

Referring to Sweden's position concerning the Aland islands, Premier Branting pointed out that Sweden never would give up the islands.

RIGA MEET APT TO BE ANOTHER DIPLOMATIC DUD

Each Side Says Other Is Sparring for Time.

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

RIGA, Sept. 19.—Mutual mistrust already threatens to make the Polish-Russian conference at Riga another Minsk fiasco.

The representatives of the Warsaw government are almost unanimous in the conviction that the soviets are seeking to gain time for the massing of new armies against the Polish frontiers.

And the Moscow delegates are just as certain that the Poles now are purposely delaying the negotiations in order to continue their military operations until they reach the line giving them the last acre of territory to which they have any pretext of claim.

Predict Failure of Meet.

Polish delegates say they are convinced that the parleys will be broken off the moment the Red armies are ready to make a new assault, and the Trotsky-Lenin agents say they will not agree to give Poland certain territory on which they believe Poland has cast her eye.

In consequence neither delegation, forty-eight hours before the first session is scheduled to begin, sees any real prospect for the establishment of peace here.

Reds in Good Position.

Before the eyes of the world the bolsheviks have a decided strategic advantage. The Moscow party arrived here three days before the Poles, and ever since have been insisting that they are ready to get down to business immediately in a sincere effort to reach an agreement.

On the other hand, the Poles are compelled to bear complete responsibility for postponement of the opening session until Tuesday, their only basis for this request being the necessity for final revision of some points in their counter proposals.

Enjoy Social Affairs.

In the meantime the official communiqués state that Polish military advances into disputed ground continue steadily while that nation's spokesmen here find time for afternoon teas, receptions in their legation, and similar activities.

The famous old "Schwarzhaeuptershaus," or Hall of Blackheads, where the conference will be held, is all ready for the session.

And the statues of "Unity" and "Peace" adorning the renaissance gable of the fourteenth century structure wear exactly the same expressions as they did during Riga's war suffering in the last five years.

FOREIGN NEWS
—IN BRIEF—

RIGA.—Indications seem against any definite agreement from the imminent Polish-Russian parleys. Each side believes the other is sparring for time and Poland's envoys expect Reds to adjourn soon as their armies are ready to deliver a new blow at Poland's frontiers.

BRITISH ACTED UNDER TREATY IN SAMOA CASE

Had Right to Deport Germans, U. S. Says.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—New Zealand acted within its right under the Versailles treaty in forcibly deporting Germans from Samoa and taking their property, according to official information here.

Under the treaty it was stated, New Zealand was authorized to deport to Germany any German nationals and the Germans are required to look to Germany for compenstion for their property seized by New Zealand.

That the deportation as descibed by THE TRIBUNE correspondent was carried out with a harshness reminiscent of the British expatriation of Evangeline and the other Arcadians occasioned suprise, but officials of the state department refused to comment, beyond expressing the opinion informally that the authorities of New Zealand were apparently acting within their rights under the treaty of Versailles.

British Embassy Gets News.

At the British embassy the story of the deportation was the first news received here of the drastic action.

Under article 118 of the treaty, "Germany renounces in favor of the principal allied and associated powers all her rights and titles over her oversea possessions," under article 120 it is provided that all German property shall pass to the government exercising authority over such territories, the decision of the local courts to be final in case of any dispute.

Article 257 of the treaty provides all German property and possessions in such territories "shall be transferred with the territories to the mandatory power in its capacity as such," and by the decision of the Supreme Council on May 6, 1919, German Samoa was allocated to New Zealand, under the mandate section (article 22) of the league of nations covenant.

Clauses in Treaty.

The economic clauses of the treaty give to the allied and associated powers the right "to retain and liquidate all property, rights, and interests belonging to German nationals or companies controlled by them, within their territories, colonies, possessions, and protectorates, including territories ceded to them by the present treaty," the liquidation to be carried out "in accordance with the laws of the allied or associated state concerned, and the German owner shall not be able to dispose of such property, rights, or interests nor to subject them to any change without the consent of that state."

Broad powers in connection with the repatriation of German subjects from China were insisted upon by the Chinese, and are authorized in article 133, in which "Germany waives all claims against the Chinese government or against any allied or associated government rising out of the internment of German nationals in China and their repatriation."

NEW YORK WOMAN AS MIMI IN PARIS DEBUT MAKES HIT

PARIS, Sept. 19.—Miss Mignon Nevada of New York, a young American singer, made her debut in the Opera Comique last night in the part of Mimi in "La Vie de Beheme." She achieved great success and was accorded an enthusiastic reception.

WARBURG TRIES TO DISSUADE JEWS FLOCKING TO U. S.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—[Jewish Telegraphic Agency.]—Felix M. Warburg of New York, chairman of a committee on American Jewish relief funds, who is here, is endeavoring to impress Jewish leaders in Europe with the necessity of discouraging European Jews from flocking to the United States. Mr. Warburg has conferred with leading Jews in Paris, including Nahum Sokolow, head of the Jewish delegations committee.

Tennessee Suffrage Foes Want Reversal by Colby

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—A delegation of Tennessee anti-suffragists, headed by Speaker of the House Walker, arrived in Washington tonight, and, according to announcement by the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, will call on Secretary Colby tomorrow to request that the final action of the Tennessee house in voting not to concur in ratification of the federal suffrage amendment be recognized and announced by the state department.

Do Big Stores Fight Advertised Brands?

Manufacturers often assume that big stores fight advertised brands because buyers do not stock up readily when advertising campaigns are known them.

Today the big stores and little stores buy goods when they feel advertising rather than when they see it.

Consumer preference is necessary to easier, better distribution and it cannot be won by inadequate or "bluff" advertising. Retailers of all classes are more responsive to real advertising than ever before.

All business is in the era of advertising. Manufacturers will find a Mitchell-Faust man most valuable counsel on how best to undertake an advertising campaign that will get results in big stores or little stores.

WHERE TO BUY ORIENTAL RUGS

Merchant The most paramount feature in the purchase of an Oriental rug should be—the Merchant—from whom you buy. His business reputation, reliability and expert knowledge of the various weaves, makes and values of Oriental rugs should be of a character and kind that will win your most implicit confidence.

Assortment A greater buyer's choice and better values are possible in selecting from a complete assortment of Oriental weaves and patterns than from an incomplete assortment. Remember this—and when possible patronize the dealer who carries rugs exclusively, just as in buying the finer grades of jewelry you patronize your jeweler.

Price Merchandise bearing two prices operates to the advantage of one buyer and the disadvantage of another. Obviously this is unfair and buyers will find that all reputable rug dealers have one price, which includes the cost of the rug, plus sales expense and a reasonable margin of profit, and this price is plainly marked on a price tag attached to the rug.

The business policy of Pushman Bros., since first opening their Chicago store in the early nineties has followed within the channels laid down above. Our collection of rugs, one of the most complete in this country, includes all of the weaves and makes of the rug weaving centers of the Orient—Persia, Turkey, India, China and the Caucasus Mountains.

It has ever been our policy to maintain one price on each and every rug in our store, and at no time during a quarter of a century in business have we ever violated the implicit trust that our patrons have placed in us.

38TH DAY FINDS MAYOR OF CORK FEELING BETTER

Other Hunger Strikers in Vale of Death.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Sept. 19.—On the thirty-eighth day of his hunger strike in Brixton prison, Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, was still conscious, extremely weak, but not quite so exhausted as yesterday.

Awaking this morning somewhat refreshed after a few hours' sleep, MacSwiney found himself suffering less pain and both the prison authorities and the Irish Self-Determination league issued bulletins at noon reporting him as much refreshed but in about the same general condition as yesterday.

British Policy Unchanged.

BELFAST, Sept. 19.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, has informed the magistrates of County Louth that he can hold out no hope that the British government will reverse its decision in the case of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, on hunger strike in Brixton jail. The magistrates recently sent a communication to Sir Hamar demanding full self-government for Ireland, with powers not less comprehensive than those enjoyed by any dominion, and calling for the immediate release of MacSwiney.

WRITES MESSAGE TO IRISH.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Terence MacSwiney today will send the following message on behalf of himself and the hunger strikers in Cork jail to Irishmen throughout the world, according to the Daily Mail:

"Tomorrow I shall have completed forty days without tasting food, and, though lying here helpless, my faculties are as clear as ever. I attribute this to the spiritual strength I receive from my daily communion, bringing me bodily strength, assisted by a world of masses and prayers.

"I believe God has directly intervened to stay the tragedy for a while for a divine purpose of his own. It is incredible that the people of England will allow this callous, cold blooded murder to be pushed to the end. I think that God is giving them their last chance to pause and consider. But if their determination is to go on, our resolution was prepared from the beginning and we are prepared to die."

GIRL IS SINN FEIN DECOY

BY JOHN LESTER.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

DUBLIN, Sept. 19.—Several disturbances attributed to the police occurred today but no loss of life has been reported.

In Galway bombs were thrown into the offices of Louis O'Dea, a Sinn Fein solicitor, during the curfew hour, but no one was hurt. At Bally Landers, the saloon of John Walsh was burned to the ground.

Using a young girl as a decoy, three armed men lured a military dispatch rider into a byway here last night, then overpowered him and made off with his motorcycle and dispatch case.

A message from Cork states that all the hunger strikers there are still alive but extremely emaciated and suffering from cold and numbness.

GOV. COX FACES BUSY SCHEDULE DURING THE WEEK

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 19.—Gov. Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate, passed through here tonight on his way to open his southern California campaign tomorrow at San Diego.

Gov. Cox will speak tomorrow noon in a San Diego theater. The governor is due at San Diego early tomorrow for a sightseeing tour and reception before his noon address.

Leaving San Diego at 3 p. m. tomorrow, Gov. Cox will return to Los Angeles for an evening address. On Tuesday he will speak at Long Beach, and address Los Angeles clubwomen and the California Editors' association in Los Angeles, speaking later at San Bernardina on his way east through Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming and the Missouri Valley states.

Czechs and Bulgars Sign a Commercial Treaty

PRAGUE, Czecho-Slovakia, Sept. 19.—Czecho-Slovakia has concluded a commercial treaty with Bulgaria, it was announced today.

APOSTLE PAUL A FRONT PORCH ORATOR, HE SAYS

Marion, O., Sept. 19.—Marion church folk were informed today that the "front porch" campaign is not a novelty, but, in fact, almost dates from the beginning of the Christian era.

According to the Rev. George M. Rourke of Long Beach, Cal., who preached the morning sermon at the First Presbyterian church, where he was a former pastor, the first "front porch" campaign was conducted by the Apostle Paul.

The apostle, the Rev. Mr. Rourke said, during the first century of the Christian era, for two years conducted a religious campaign from the front porch of a rented house in Rome, where he received pilgrims and spoke to them and wrote letters to those who could not visit him.

HARDING TURNS ATTENTION TO HOUSE PROBLEM

Wants Study of Conditions in Big Cities.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Marion, O., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Senator Harding is deeply interested in the housing problem and has urged the senate subcommittee appointed to inquire into the housing shortage to investigate the situation in the west thoroughly before congress convenes on Dec. 2. He has asked Senator Calder of New York, chairman of the committee, who visited him here yesterday, to have the committee sit in Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, Cincinnati, and other centers. Senator Calder said that he would do this.

In the opinion of Senator Calder, who has been investigating the housing situation in the east, the greatest remedy that could be applied would be a revision of the excess profits law and a modification of the surtaxes so as to bring back to the building industry money that is now being put into tax exempt securities.

Exempt Mortgage Tax?

He pointed out that there are today in existence about $14,000,000,000 worth of tax exempt securities, two and a half times as much as before the war. He declares that if his plan of modifying the tax law is not adopted it may be necessary to exempt incomes from mortgages on dwelling houses from federal taxation.

Senator Calder called attention to the shipping law provision which exempts from the profit tax the earnings of American ships in foreign trade, provided these profits are invested in building new ships. He said that this theory, applied to houses, would greatly encourage new building.

May Fight Shoddy Wool.

Howard E. Greene, secretary of the national sheep and wool bureau, Chicago, discussed with Senator Harding today the question of a pure fabric law. He explained that the process of making wool shoddies was perfected twenty years ago. In this process, he said, woolen rags and remnants could be worked into fabrics which were sold as all wool and in fact were, although of a very different quality from goods woven entirely of virgin wool.

Mr. Greene discussed the Capper-French bill, which requires the branding of shoddies. The measure is still pending, and wool and other agricultural interests are urging its passage. Mr. Greene said these interests have no desire to hamper the fullest utilization of all woolen remnants, but want legislation that will insure that the buyer of fabrics will know exactly what he is getting and not pay for something better than he is being furnished.

Senator Harding received a delegation of G. A. R. members today, but made no speech. They are on their way to the grand encampment in Indianapolis.

Harding vs. Cox on "America First"

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Republicans are preparing to circulate a "deadly parallel," comparing the attitude of Senator Harding and Gov. Cox toward those questions summed up in the phrase "America first." Here are the utterances of the candidates:

HARDING.

"It is not possible, and it ought not to be expected, that Americans of foreign birth shall stifle love for kinsfolk in lands from which they come. It would be poor material for the making of an American if one of foreign birth would, or could, be insensible to the fortunes of father, mother, grandfathers, grandmothers, brothers or sisters, if he could be insensible to the fortunes of the people from whom he came.

"America does not want that and does not ask that. We want the finer attributes of humanity in all our citizenship, and we wish these lovable traits in foreign born and American born. But we do ask all to think of 'America first,' to serve 'America first,' to defend 'America first,' and plight an unalterable faith in America first."

COX.

"What was the German slogan before the war?

"The reactionaries are singing the same song the kaiser sang, 'Deutschland uber Alles.'

"The world rose and struck Germany down because it was selfish; because it was brutal; because it was not humane; because it was a great isolated power adding to its fat fortune and building up a great armament.

"If it is to be 'America first,' and you are going to isolate her from the rest of the world, you have to arm her to the teeth, haven't you? I will tell you what my creed is: It is Lord God Almighty first."

ROYAL CLOTHES — Tailored to 17 Body Dimensions

Young Man: why wear ready-mades?

Get better clothes, better style and better fit—in made-to-order clothes—for less cost.

MAYBE "ready-mades" are just a habit with you.

You've sort of followed the easy custom of drifting into a loop store, and making the best of what you can find.

But man, think of the cost of that habit!

The cost in lost style and satisfaction.

Are these the kind of clothes you want this Fall?

We don't think so!

Especially when Royal made-to-your-measure clothes cost considerably less.

T·R·T

But they're no longer the best economy "buy."

For we are now delivering, at our wholesale plant, a genuine custom-tailored suit or overcoat—made to your taste and guaranteed all pure wool—for $40.

Considerably less than the price of the better grade ready-mades.

It is our wholesale selling plan—the-maker-to-wearer idea—that makes this price possible.

Shop around and see what the ready-made stores are giving for $60, $75 and $80. Then come down here and compare their prices and workmanship with our $40 quality. We'll abide by that test.

We give you your choice of 1500 combinations in fabrics and fashions—richest, newest Fall custom styles.

And we build the suit or overcoat to your exact dictation.

BRIAND PREMIER IF MILLERAND IS PRESIDENT

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Sept. 19.—If the French chamber of deputies and the senate stampede for Millerand next Wednesday, the French premier will accept the presidency.

Politicians believe Millerand's majority would swamp any opposition and point out that all prospective candidates already have withdrawn from the contest, owing to the premier's strength. M. Millerand is fearful, however, of a repetition of the Clemenceau fiasco, and intends to wait for the final moment before officially consenting to accept the nomination.

Already Premier Millerand has offered Aristide Briand the premiership if he becomes president, and has received M. Briand's promise to stand solidly supporting him in carrying out the provisions of the Versailles treaty and fighting against British domination.

It is semi-officially announced that President Deschanel has greatly improved in the last few days since his resignation. This is accepted as indicating that, feeling the weight of national affairs no longer and anticipating personal freedom and liberty of movement, the mental strain has been relieved, permitting physical improvement.

M. Deschanel will go to Brittany to live when able and will recuperate on the estate of his father-in-law, known as Château Vallee.

Sensational developments are expected before the ambassadors' council when Gen. Derond, French military representative in Upper Silesia, appears before the body.

Gen. Derond was recalled to Paris following the resignation of the British members of the Upper Silesia commission who complained that Germans were being mistreated by the Poles.

Serious charges are expected to be made and Franco-British relations may be further strained by the promised investigation.

SIEGE OF AINTAB IS DESCRIBED BY RELIEF WORKER

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—French and Turkish forces are engaged in an almost continuous artillery duel at Aintab, where the French are besieged, says a letter received here from Boyd Wesson, an American relief worker.

Decisive results have not been reported, but thus far the French seem to have been the more successful, Mr. Boyd says. His letter states that all the Americans in the city are well.

"One day the Turks bombarded the French aviation field, and then attempted to take it by storm, but were driven off, leaving a number of killed," says the letter. "The Turks also have shelled the Central Turkey college, and part of the walls have been demolished. French airplanes are frequently in action. It is believed the Turks are short of shells."

Approves Exportation of Russia's Diamonds

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 18.—[Delayed.]—Exportation from Russia of diamonds and jewels in order to obtain foreign credit for the soviet government is defended in a statement by Leo Kameneff, head of the Russian bolshevik trade mission, printed in Social Demokraten today.

Although M. Kameneff denies personal participation in the exportation of precious stones, he declares it never has been a secret, inasmuch as all goods have been nationalized.

WATCHMAN SHOT IN BACK; BLAME BOYS WITH RIFLE

Hubert Bates, a watchman for the Chicago Mill and Lumber company at 900 North Sangamon street, was shot in the back yesterday while he was making the rounds in the company's yards.

Police of the West Chicago avenue station are searching for a group of boys seen in the neighborhood shooting birds with a rifle shortly before Bates was shot.

Bates told the police he heard no report and only felt a burning sensation when he was struck. It was found the bullet was a .22 caliber.

Illustrated Booklet on Request

In Quality of Tone the KIMBALL Stands Supreme

THE best way to learn the real merit of a phonograph is to put it to the actual test of reproduction. We invite comparison of the KIMBALL tone with that of any other phonograph on the market. Test the KIMBALL with the records of the human voice in song or speech—musical instruments in solo or ensemble—try it in every possible way and you'll marvel at its natural tone-qualities.

IN visible beauty, durability of construction, modern mechanical refinement, ability to play every make and size of record without extra attachment—everything that goes to make up the ideal phonograph—the KIMBALL stands unrivalled. By all means hear a KIMBALL PHONOGAPH at your dealer's before making a selection.

AUTOS TAKE FIVE LIVES; TERROR OF SPEEDERS KILLED

Two Children Victims in Day's Accidents.

Three persons were killed in automobile accidents yesterday—two of them children—and two succumbed to accidents that occurred Saturday.

GEORGE STARZYK.

Among the dead is Frank Felke of 617 Ridge road, Wilmette, a deputy sheriff noted as a motorcycle policeman and a terror to speeders. It was he who arrested William Swift, son of Louis F. Swift, and charged him with reckless driving and with having liquor in his auto. Swift has obtained five continuances from Justice of the Peace D. M. Mickey. Felke was the only witness against him.

Felke was riding west in Dempster street about 3 miles west of Evanston early yesterday morning, and ran full tilt into an auto parked by the side of the road.

Friends Pick Him Up.

The auto contained his friends, Edward Osakowski, Niles, Ill., John Freese, 2456 Southport avenue, and others. They picked him up, saw that his arms and legs were broken and his skull fractured, and hurried him to St. Francis hospital.

His wife, accustomed to his coming home in the early hours, was waiting for him when the phone rang. She thought it was her husband calling up to say he would be late—and so received the news of his death. His daughter Gladys, 2 years old, went to his bed later in the morning to wake him up, and cried because he hadn't come home.

Little Girl Run Down.

Helen Schmitz, 4 years old, was run down while trying to cross the street in front of her home, 3040 Flournoy street, last night by the automobile of Edward W. Fithian, 4736 Schubert avenue. She died in her mother's arms ten minutes later. Fithian is being held.

Joseph Lerner, 5 years old, 1832 Hudson avenue, walking with his sister in Lincoln park yesterday, suddenly jerked away from her and ran out into the drive. Dr. George A. Lewis, 608 East Forty-second street, could not stop his auto in time. He gave the child first aid and rushed him to the Augustana hospital, but the boy died two hours later.

George Starzyk, 19, 1203 West Ohio street, was fatally injured Saturday night when an auto in which he was riding collided with a milk wagon. Joseph Shlebos, 18, 1231 Ohio street, who drove the car, and John Ciesla, 20, 460 North Sangamon street, are held by the Oak Park police. Starzyk's body was found in the car yesterday.

Samuel Carl, 15, 1327 North Western avenue, struck by a taxi Saturday, died in St. Elizabeth's hospital yesterday.

Victor J. Peceny, 1929 South Forty-ninth court, is at the West Suburban hospital in a serious condition. He was thrown from his auto yesterday when it collided with that of Hugh R. McKenzie, 433 South Cuyler avenue, Oak Park.

Peceny was with his wife and mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cinott, 2423 South Kedzie avenue. The McKenzie auto did not stop. A milk wagon driver got the number of the license plate, and McKenzie was arrested. He said he did not know there had been an accident. But his machine had been damaged.

Hold Autoists After Accident.

Joseph Szimkus, 43 years old, 232 Swann street, was injured yesterday when he was struck by an automobile driven by Harry House, who told the police he lived in Hillcrest, Ill. John Schneider, 58 years old, 11670 Wallace street, owner of the motor car, was held with House after they had attempted to escape.

ATLANTA BROKER POISONED.

New York, Sept. 18.—Lewis H. Hale, Atlanta, Ga., banker and broker, was found poisoned in his room at a hotel here today. He was removed to a hospital where it was reported tonight he probably would recover.

2 MOTOR PARTIES IN PISTOL FIGHT; ONE MAN IS SLAIN

New York, Sept. 19.—One man was killed and two others were probably fatally wounded during an altercation last night between two auto parties returning from the Mardi Gras carnival at Coney Island.

According to the police, a large motor truck containing twenty-eight men and women became stuck in the sand, delaying an automobile behind with six men. The occupants of the automobile, the police say, became enraged at their inability to pass the stalled motor truck and soon a general fight followed, in which several shots were fired.

The dead man was identified as Charles Getter of New York. Lee Zanhit, one of the wounded, is not expected to live.

The men who were in the automobile fled after the shooting, but two of them were captured by mounted policemen. They were locked up.

Jugo-Slavs Want Peace with Italy, Minister Says

BELGRADE, Sept. 17.—[Delayed.]—The Jugo-Slav foreign minister, Anton Trumbitch, speaking in the national assembly today, insisted strongly on the government's desire to reach friendly relations and a good understanding with Italy. The government, he added, had made known that it considered the proclamation of a regency at Fiume as null and void.

ILLINOIS PROVES ITS LOYALTY

The practical certainty of the Republican nomination of William B. McKinley for United States senator over Frank L. Smith, the local Tammany candidate, together with the victory of anti-Tammany candidates for congress, will allow Illinois Republicans to go to the polls in November in undivided support of the national ticket.

No Republican voter wishing to put Mr. Harding in the White House and give him a loyal working majority in congress will be compelled to compromise with conscience by swallowing the bolshevistic doctrines of the Tammany platform. Congressman Smith sought the nomination upon that platform. With the Tammany support in Chicago he came near winning it, but with returns almost complete it seems he has lost, and with him have gone to defeat the principles for which he stood.

Had he won the nomination he would have been compelled to carry with him to the polls the Tammany brand and the demagogic pledges of his faction. Loyal Republican voters would have been compelled either to hold their noses and vote for him, injecting Tammany principles and methods into the next congress, or scratch their tickets, jeopardizing a Republican majority for Harding in Illinois, and jeopardizing a Republican majority in the next congress. A load would have been put upon Harding and the entire national ticket in Illinois which might have been fatal. So great a burden would have extended even beyond Illinois, endangering the whole national Republican campaign.

With the elimination of Congressman Smith from the national ticket all this is avoided. There need be no fatal scratching of tickets. Republicans, loyal alike to their country, their state, and the principles of their national platform which Senator Harding is pledged to carry into effect, can vote the national ticket in Illinois with a clear conscience. By so doing they will not only do their part toward putting Senator Harding in the White House, but will help to provide him with a loyal and effective working majority in congress.

ROOSEVELT (MEX.).

Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt told an audience in the cow country that Franklin Roosevelt is a maverick and doesn't wear the Roosevelt brand.

That is all right in the cow country, where maverick is a household word, but for general use in distinguishing the kind of Roosevelt who kept his job with Josephus Daniels and did his bit toward producing the present deplorable condition of the American navy from the kind of Roosevelt who in the same job helped to put the fleet in readiness for 1898 and then jumped into a Rough Rider's saddle or went to the front in 1917, fought the enemy, and felt the force of his arm in honorable wounds and even in heroic death—to mark this distinction we prefer our own, and we shall continue to refer to the varieties of Roosevelt as Roosevelt (Mex.) and Roosevelt (U. S.).

MANIFEST DESTINY.

The suggestion that Great Britain cede the British West Indies to us in payment of the war debt has more than a financial aspect. Canadians do not approve because they are developing profitable commercial relations with the islands, and also probably because they do not like to see the imperial flag come down anywhere on this continent.

The transfer, nevertheless, besides bringing a great relief to British finance, releasing resources which doubtless could be used in other more profitable fields, has the merit of falling into the current of tendency which Americans of a more robust generation called "manifest destiny."

The Caribbean islands are not a proper part of any European system. They are the strategic gate of the canal, and the canal is a part of the coast line of the United States, an essential part connecting our eastern and western fronts. British possession happily does not involve the threat which possession by other conceivable powers would, but it stands athwart the path of natural expansion to which natural forces have compelled us from the beginning. Louisiana, Texas, California, Oregon fell as naturally and inevitably into the American system as an apple falls to the ground. The same force ended Spain's rule in Cuba and Porto Rico, and has forced even Mr. Wilson to a course of proceedings in Haiti which Americans of his school would have passionately condemned if Col. Roosevelt had directed them.

It is not a question of political forms or of deliberate purpose. It is a question of instinct and necessity. We do not create the conditions of intervention and expansion. They are inherent in the juxtaposition of an energetic, progressive, modern people, with backward races occupying regions they have never learned how to develop. We have gone into Cuba and cleaned it up, and our strength sustains it and must continue to sustain. We have gone into Santo Domingo under Roosevelt and into Haiti under his opposite, Wilson. We have not been able to keep out of the isthmus, and we shall not be able to stay out of Mexico. Except for the painful futilities of the present administration's dealings with Mexico, American intervention has been a beneficence. When conditions have become unendurable we have gone in to establish order out of anarchy, the beginnings of responsible society out of confusion, waste, and bankruptcy. We have saved the people of Haiti and Santo Domingo from the intolerable curse of perpetual revolution, and eventually we shall have to do the same for the Mexicans, unless their history belies them.

The American people have no appetite for conquest, no will to rule subject peoples. Nevertheless the energies, moral and material, of the United States will in one form or another eventually dominate a region naturally within our field of growth.

A GUARD OF HONOR.

With less than two weeks remaining of the intensive campaign to fill the quotas of recruits for the reorganized Illinois national guard, the task demands the support of every patriotic citizen in the state. Self-interest as well as patriotism should stimulate assistance.

Plans for making the five armories of the guard in Chicago into clubs, with special advantages for social and athletic activities, are only a part of the appeal for recruits. Educational opportunities and the chance for invaluable service to the community should attract the best type of our younger citizens. Boys who longed for an opportunity to serve their country in the war, but were denied because of their youth, have an opportunity here for service almost as important, even though less spectacular and dangerous. Our national guard brought honor to the uniform in the war. The rising generation can share that honor by donning the uniform.

Employers must do their part. They should realize that when one of their employés is called away to help suppress a mob outbreak in another section of Chicago or in another town of the state, he is defending their property and interests as certainly as if he were standing guard with a bayonet at the door of his own office. It is our instrument for the protection of society, of which each employer as well as each employé is a member.

The highest officers of the reorganized guard are soldiers of the highest character and ability, proved under fire on the battlefields of France. They are undertaking a great task. Mothers, fathers, and sons should join with them in making it a success.

CONSCRIPTION OF LABOR.

The Italian Metal Workers' federation, leader of the movement to sovietize industry in Italy, has formulated a program of control which will prove interesting to all persons in the United States who believe the soviet offers the only proper solution of industrial and economic problems. The program includes fourteen points, of which Article 5 deserves particular attention. It says:

"The council will decide for what sort of labor the workman is best fitted and so assign him."

That means conscription of labor. Under that system a mediocre sales manager with a strong back will be put to shoveling coal. A man who prefers to turn a lathe can be put to running a wheelbarrow. If production shrinks, the office force can be put to stoking furnaces. A man who has made draftsmanship his profession may be put to painting automobile wheels. When supplies of raw materials are delayed, the whole force can be transferred from their homes to a seaport to act as stevedores and rush supplies. Training, personal preference as to occupation, and home ties or social inclinations alike will be thrust aside at the whim of the council of control.

Lenin originated the idea of soviet Russia. He found that with the stimulus of personal advancement removed by "equality of reward" the only method of getting certain work done was to conscript the workers necessary, disciplining them, transferring them, and employing them under the same methods by which a military force is handled. The system marks the end of all personal liberty. It is a basic principle of sovietism.

It is such a system that sponsors of the soviet system are attempting to put into force in Italy. It is such a system that soviet propagandists are preaching in America. They may bury it deep among their declarations of principles and gloss it over with a promise of equal reward for all labor, but it cannot be hidden.

Conscription of labor is an essential feature of the soviet. That fact is evident.

THE TEN MILLION DOLLAR BLUFF.

The motives for the suit brought against THE TRIBUNE by the city hall will be generally understood, we think. The suit is an attempt to alibi Tammany for wasting the public funds and bringing the city into its present humiliating financial condition. It is also an attempt to frighten other critics of Tammany misgovernment into silence.

We credit our mayor's advisers with enough common sense to absolve them from any expectation of frightening THE TRIBUNE. They have tried that in several ways, even by this device of bringing lawsuits. But Messrs. Lundin, Thompson & Co. produced no results with us by their previous efforts, and we believe they have no hope of doing so by their latest grandstand play.

But there are other critics of Tammany and rebels against its rule. The suit is an attempt to terrorize any such, a part of the policy of official terrorism and coercion which Tammany has been practicing for some time.

In short, the suits are a Big Bluff by Big Bill and his Backers, and, like all his promises and most of his threats, will come to nothing.

Editorial of the Day

DEMOCRATS HAVE DEFINITE IDEAS.

[Marion, O., Tribune, Democratic.]

It will be noticeable in the campaign that the Democrats have an affirmative proposition and the Republicans a negative. The Democrats know definitely what they want and the Republicans shift from pillar to post. The Republicans abandoned their position at the threat of Hiram Johnson that "he would boil" if his party indorsed the treaty and began talking into the air. But the Democrats were clear in their general purpose to indorse the treaty with sufficient reservation to make it safe and Gov. Cox stands on that platform.

The Democrats who are in the campaign all take that position. There are two or three like Jim Reed who are in favor of that disposition, but they are not in the campaign. But a campaign of negation is bound to become discursive and unsatisfactory. Republicans like Johnson, Borah, and Flowers are not following Harding as he goes stabbing around the board. First Harding was for the league with reservations, then he was against the league, and now he is for part of it, what there is good in it, and for the toothless "Hague tribunal." He is to put wooden teeth in it so it can function.

On the other hand Cox gets down to business and says "I believe in going in." There is but one thing in contemplation. That is to get this matter settled and then pay attention to other things. If Cox is elected it will be adjusted promptly without a German made treaty. With Harding we do not know what is to happen. At first he was going to make peace with Germany and apparently let her dictate it. But Republicans saw that wouldn't do and got him off that reef, a German made peace, and now he says he will fix it up with The Hague tribunal with wooden teeth and what he can get out of the league. Cox condenses and focalizes and is much the better executive. He knows what he wants and goes straight for it.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

AS there are a thousand doors to let out life, so there are a thousand doors to let in death, and none of these may be barred against it. As an example, the explosion in Wall street was not more striking than the fall of the flaming airship upon a Chicago bank. We were reading only this week of the ancient sage who, warned that he should be killed by something falling, retired to the desert to escape his fate. When his hour came, an eagle flying high above him dropped a turtle on his head.

A MAN may drive a cartload of bombs through a metropolis, and touch them off when the time seems good; but let him try to transport half a dozen cases of whisky and see how far he can go. Such personal liberty as remains is enjoyed chiefly by crooks and lunatics.

A Joke on the Ladies.

Sir: Vox Pop criticises you for mixing in politics. Doesn't Vox know that that is where the best jokes come from? Who else but politicians would have thought of giving women the vote and nobody to vote for? C. M. W.

IF Lenine has the Carnegie idea, that it is a disgrace to die rich, he can easily get rid of what gold he controls by starting a newspaper like the London Herald in every large city on the map. If the process still seems too slow, he can back a few high-brow theaters.

DRINK TO ME ONLY WITH THINE EARS.

[From the Erie, Pa., Times.]

At this lecture there was no two ways about it. The big crowd that jammed the hall to its capacity drank the wonderful lecture with eager ears.

WHEN we read that the Japanese had formed a radical cabal called "Omo Tokyo" we could make nothing of it. But a Japanese gentleman explains that it should be Omoto Kyo, which is quite utterly different. It reminds us, more or less relevantly, of the ballade, "I loved you once in Old, Japan."

Variation of the Mother-in-Law Wheeze.

Sir: Add Hints for Husbands: In Tibet the bride's mother is eaten at the wedding feast. ("White Shadows of the South Seas.") SHENANIGAN.

A SETTLEMENT in Ireland seems further off than it seemed three or four years ago, at which time a rapprochement was almost reached. Sir Oliver Lodge has obliged. And, as he lucidly remarks, it is safer for the physicist to postulate a special property and matter than to admit confused complications upon time and space. Very much safer, we should aver.

IN "Birds and Men," W. H. Hudson speaks of a one-eyed Portuguese who used to spin yarns to his fellow workmen on the Plata river. One of these tales concerned a traveler who came to a town in which was a church without windows:

"From the door as he looked a small old man came out with a large empty sack in his hands. Toddling out to the middle of the churchyard he stood still, and grasping the empty sack by its top, held it open between his outstretched arms for a space of about five minutes; then with a sudden movement of his hands he closed the sack's mouth, and still grasping it tightly, hurried back to the church as fast as his stiff joints would let him, and disappeared within the door. By and by he came forth again and repeated the performance, and then again, until the traveler approached and asked him what he was doing. 'I am lighting the church,' said the old man; and he went on to explain that it was a large and fine church, full of rich ornaments, but very dark inside—so dark that when people came to service the greatest confusion prevailed, and they could not see each other or the priest, nor the priest them. It has always been so, he continued, and it was a great mystery; he had been engaged by the fathers of the village a long time back, when he was a young man, to carry sunlight in to light the interior; but though he had grown old at his task, and had carried in many, many thousands of sackfuls of sunlight each year, it still remained dark, and no one could say why it was so."

THE TYPHOID CARRIERS.

AS the number of cases of typhoid fever becomes smaller it is possible to find out when each case originated.

In Massachusetts they investigate each case and they nearly always are able to find its source. The same policy is followed, perhaps just as thoroughly, in New York City. In fact, in every community having a well developed health department, whenever a case of typhoid fever is reported inspectors get on the job doing detective work.

Drs. Osborn and Meckler, who are engaged in this work for the Massachusetts board of health, are of the opinion that the number of carriers in that state is on the increase. There are known to be fifty-one typhoid carriers in that state and these were responsible for more than half the cases of typhoid there.

A typhoid carrier is a person who without being sick harbors typhoid bacilli in his body and passes them out with the excretions either daily and constantly or periodically. In other words, the typhoid bacillus is at home in that individual as the colon bacillus, its cousin, is in all persons.

Of the thirteen carriers found in Massachusetts in 1919 three claimed they never had had typhoid fever. The way typhoid carriers spread typhoid is in the main by handling food. In the Massachusetts investigation 41 per cent, or nearly half of the cases infected by carriers, were infected by milk. No typhoid carrier should work as a milker, or in a bottling plant, milk plant, dairy milk store or on a milk wagon from which can milk is sold.

More than one-third (35 per cent) were infected by food other than milk. No typhoid carrier should work as a cook or waiter or in a grocery store where foods to be eaten raw are sold.

In the Massachusetts list were two nurses. All nurses caring for typhoid fever should be protected against the disease by vaccination. No one should nurse if there is any likelihood that he or she is a typhoid carrier. Nurses are very careful about cleanliness of the hands, but not even a nurse is sufficiently careful to make her a safe attendant if she is a typhoid carrier.

Drs. Osborn and Meckler found a considerable percentage of the carriers to be housewives. As such they endanger their own families, but not many outside. It is possible that some family wells long in bad repute as the cause of family typhoid have been accused of crimes for which they were not responsible. In Massachusetts they know of four persons who have been typhoid carriers 44, 20, 18, and 16 years respectively.

HOW TO CURE RINGWORM.

L. C. writes: "Will you tell me something about the so-called ringworm, its cause, length of time developing, and treatment?"

REPLY.

Ringworm is a parasitic disease of the skin, though not due to a worm. When the parasite is killed the disease gets well promptly. It is contagious. Neglected cases persist for years. It is best to treat ringworm of the scalp once or twice with X-rays. Ringworm elsewhere in the body is cured by sulphur ointments, iodine applications, and other local remedies.

ABOUT GOITER.

Mrs. A. E. S. writes: "1. Is there any home treatment for goiter?

"2. Will electric treatments cure it?

"3. What is the cause of goiter?

"4. I am a middle aged woman and have raised a large family. I have headaches almost daily. Could they be caused by the goiter?"

REPLY.

1. Yes. A person with goiter can help materially by cultivating calm. She can resist giving way to nervousness or becoming excited or emotional. When she is nervous her heart is racing. She can quiet herself by applying a cold water bag over the goiter and also over the heart. She can do much by care of the digestion. I know one goiter man who has been able to lead a very useful life by watching his eating intelligently. Sometimes it is the health of other organs than the stomach which needs careful watching. Care should be taken to drink no polluted water. Others avoid drinking snow water habitually. Some take a little iodine in some form or other for two weeks twice a year.

2. Some cases of goiter are cured by X-rays. I do not think ordinary electric treatment is of service.

3. There are various theories as to the cause of goiter. Among the causes given are worry, great mental shock or strain, sore throat, drinking polluted water, drinking water too free from minerals, a diet containing too little iodine.

4. Your headaches could be due to your goiter.

SEEMS SERIOUS CASE.

G. H. L. writes: "For seven months I have had tuberculosis; three months in bed. There is a bad spot on my left lung. Will this left lung affect the heart? My doctor speaks of my heart as in a nervous condition. I lately have had palpitations and a nervous feeling, but do not feel it much now. But I have at times a rapid pulse after meals, also after coughing; then the rapid pulse becomes irregular, or kind of stops and goes on. Of course, I have a fast pulse, due to my condition. Do you think I need special treatment for the heart? Am I subject to rheumatism of the heart? I am 21 years old."

REPLY.

The heart beats rapidly in tuberculosis. That is one of the symptoms of the disease. Your symptoms indicate a possibility of adhesions between the covering of your lungs and that of your heart. Such adhesions not infrequently occur in chronic consumption. You should remain quietly in bed and that you seem to be doing. Probably no other form of heart treatment would avail you anything.

EXAMINATION IS ADVISABLE.

R. W. writes: "Please state cause and remedy for ankles swelling and for weak legs. This condition disappears in the morning. I am 79 years old."

REPLY.

Have your heart, liver, and kidneys examined. Swelling of the ankles, as a rule, means disease in one of these organs.

STILL CUTTING GRASS.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Why is the owner of the lot at Fifty-ninth street and Stony Island avenue allowed to dump ashes and tin cans, rubbish of every description, on this vacant property fronting the Midway? This is an eyesore and should be discontinued. R. T. B.

An investigation was made by an inspector from this department, as a result of which a notice was served on the owner to "cut weeds and grass according to ordinance; remove all rubbish and refuse and maintain premises in a clean and sanitary condition."

THE WORLD WAR ANSWERS.

1. What country did Austria declare war against on July 28, 1914? Serbia.
2. On how much of the western front did our American boys see service? On practically every stretch of the western front from Belgium to the Vosges.
3. What was the first distinctly American offensive? The battle of St. Mihiel, although French colonial troops fought with the American divisions and French and British air squadrons assisted.
4. Which was the greatest battle fought by the American troops, lasting some forty-seven days and engaging over a million of our men? The Meuse-Argonne.
5. In what line of American service was the proportion of deaths heaviest? In the infantry.
6. How many Liberty loans did the United States float? Five.
7. Which troops were repulsed at the battle of the Marne? The German troops.
8. How did Lord Kitchener of England supposedly meet his death? He was supposedly lost with the cruiser Hampshire while on his way to Russia in June, 1916.
9. What request of Theodore Roosevelt was refused by President Wilson after our entry into the war? Roosevelt's request that he be allowed to raise volunteer troops for service in Europe.
10. Into what country did the former Emperor of Germany take refuge just before the armistice? Holland.

JAPAN'S HAND IN CHINA.

New York, Sept. 11.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—During the American congressmen's recent visit to the orient the press in the United States published Marquis Okuma's address in Tokio greeting the congressmen, and in the course of his speech he asked that Japan be given a free hand in China and Corea. He stated that sixty years had elapsed without that unification of the civilization of the east and the west for which he had constantly striven.

Knowing Marquis Okuma, it would not strike me to be at all strange if Marquis Okuma had sixty more years to further his object, and still without avail.

Unless one renounces himself he never will come to his real self. Just an abstract thought or theory is of no moment until it leads to some real deed or work of good result. Deeds alone are the best proofs. Japan has had quite a lone hand and clear field in my country for the last six years and the unsettled and bemuddled Chinese situation shows a most excellent sample of what Japanese leadership in China has been able to accomplish. Japan's only hope of rehabilitating her good name in the eyes of the world, which will enable her friends to forget the dilemma into which she has forced them, is to win—if ever she will—the confidence of China by returning her rights in Shantung.

It may be informing to let our friends in America know that there are over 2,500 Chinese students in your various seats of learning here, who are taking notes of what propaganda work Japan has been able to do in this country.

THE LEGION IS STILL IN THE FIGHT.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I see in the Vox Pop of Sept. 12 that A. K. says a great many things. Judging from what he does say, however, he must be one of those 3,000,000 American voters which Wilhelm mentioned in his Potsdam speech. If the American Legion is not the voice of about 4,000,000 of the reddest blooded Americans, I am very much mistaken.

A. K. talks of buying bonds until it hurts and at present having to sell those bonds at 80. He should be glad that he put that money in Liberty bonds, even if he never receives his dollar for dollar with interest. I judge it better to spend every cent one has and live in a tent, if necessary, in a free country, than do a goose step before and for the benefit of Wilhelm II. Let A. K. remember that it was the American Legion soldiers, sailors, and marines that saved the U. S.

The American Legion saved the U. S. on the battlefields of France and Belgium and they will save the U. S. for Americans and make it safe and clean and decent for Americans, in spite of A. K. and all such of the same ilk.

EX-SOLDIER.

STILL DOUBTFUL OF THE RAILROADS' GOOD FAITH.

Harlan, Ia., Sept. 13.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Now that the railroads have been granted all they asked for, far in excess of what was needed to effect the increase granted the men, will you be fair enough to devote some of your space and efforts in the interest of the public?

Now that they have been granted more than they had reason to expect, it is time some of the existing wrongs against the public be righted.

I refer first to the inexcusable, unjust, and infamous intrastate passenger rate. Will you please state or have some railroad official or interstate commerce commissioner state some sane reason why a person through necessity (and at the same time working up business for the railroads) traveling over a distance of 100, 500, or a thousand miles is required to pay a higher passenger rate than some one on a day's visit to a neighboring town, though on the same railroad and the same train, simply because the one traveling the greater distance is obliged to cross an imaginary state line? How any sane person ever could have devised or any commission stand for such an unjust and infamous ruling I am at a loss to understand.

Again, only the other day in calling on one of my customers he was presented with a freight bill calling for pay on 50,000 pounds, when the car contained, as charged in his invoice, only 43,700 pounds, the rail ruling being that the minimum charge on a refrigerator car was for 50,000 pounds, yet at the same time if that dealer wished to load that same car the railroad would not allow him to load 50,000 pounds. How is that for a holdup or plain steal?

W. H. SCOTT.

SUSPICIONS CONFIRMED.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—My suspicion that you are narrow, partisan, and not on the square was confirmed by your failure to print my previous two letters reflecting on your partisan attitude in the present campaign and also on the league. I've been a reader of THE TRIBUNE for ten years and never missed it a day, but I never paid much attention to your editorials, knowing how prejudiced you can be and how nasty you get when you oppose some one politically. Your attacks on President Wilson, who will be recorded in history as one of our greatest presidents, will come back and fall on your own head. Wake up, Mr. Editor, and realize that there are other people living in Chicago besides the Irish and German elements and those opposed to the league of nations.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF PRIMARY VOTE TO START TODAY

Official canvass of the vote cast in the 2,210 Chicago precincts on the state and county tickets starts today. James F. Sullivan, chief clerk of the board of election commissioners, predicted it will be completed late Wednesday night or Thursday morning. It will be ten days, however, before the count on all offices will be completed. The results on state and county offices will be announced as soon as they are known.

Fifteen teams, composed of employés of the board of election commissioners, will make the official canvass from tally sheets turned in by judges and clerks of election.

Watchers to Be on Guard.

The principal state and county candidates have arranged for their representatives to watch the official count. As each candidate will have at least one representative on watch, it means that from 300 to 500 watchers will be on guard.

Nothing official has developed either in Cook county or downstate to change the figures printed in yesterday's TRIBUNE, which indicated a victory for Len Small, Thompson candidate for governor, by a plurality of 6,800, and of William B. McKinley, anti-Thompson candidate for United States senator, by 10,973.

Both figures, of course, are subject to revision as the result of the official count.

An error in the unofficial tabulation of the vote of Adams county was claimed by Jerome O. Christie, Oglesby campaign manager. The vote in Adams county was tabulated as Oglesby, 2,870; Small, 2,194. The correct figures, Christie says, are Oglesby, 3,292; Small, 1,454. If this is so, Oglesby would gain 1,062 votes in Adams county, which would cut the apparent plurality for Small to 5,800 instead of 6,800 in round figures.

The official count of the downstate vote will be conducted in the office of Secretary of State Emmerson from figures furnished by the county clerks.

City Hall Claims Garner Victor.

Thompson managers claimed yesterday that the returns from 183 of the missing Chicago precints printed in THE TRIBUNE, which showed the nomination of Len Small would also show that John P. Garner, Thompson candidate for recorder, had defeated Joseph F. Haas, incumbent and anti-Thompson candidate for renomination.

DEMOCRATS TO 'PLAY SAFE' ON ELECTOR TICKET

State Committee Will Act on Wednesday.

Illinois Democrats will transact the business usually intrusted to a state convention at a meeting of the Democratic state central committee to be held in Hotel Sherman Wednesday. At this meeting candidates for trustees of the University of Illinois will be nominated and candidates for presidential electors already nominated by the various congressional districts will be renominated.

This will be done to prevent any question being raised as to the legality of the nomination of these candidates, the first nominations having been thrown into dispute as the result of the Supreme court decision that the 1919 primary law is unconstitutional.

The committee will also adopt a platform on which the Democratic state candidates will run.

With the state committee will sit members of the women's state auxiliary committee, the state, congressional and legislative district candidates, and a number of prominent Democrats who have been invited to the meeting. Democrats have accept the opinion of Attorney General Brundage that the nomination of university trustees and electors can be made by the state committee.

T. R. Jr. Passes Through City.

Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt passed through Chicago on his way to New York to attend a special meeting of the legislature of which he is a member. He has been on a speaking tour of the west where he was sent to offset the work of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice president.

"Harding and the Republican party will sweep the west," was his prediction. "The people of this country have brought the party to its present dominating position through their good common sense. When they get an issue clearly they go right, and they are aroused to the issues of this campaign. They realize that the Democratic policy, stripped of its cloak of high sounding phrases, stands out in ugly nakedness as a partial surrender of our national independence. It is simply a question of majorities."

Marion Mecca of Traveling Men.

Traveling men of the country will visit Senator Harding at Marion next Saturday, which has been set aside as "Traveling Men's day." Special trains will probably be run to Marion from New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Dayton, Cleveland, Boston, Toledo, Detroit, and Philadelphia. Senator Harding will speak to the delegations at 2 o'clock. J. H. Kazar, a Bloomington, Ill., traveling man, will speak for the delegation. L. A. Minter, western director of the Harding and Coolidge Traveling Men's club with offices in the Auditorium hotel headquarters, is in charge of arrangements for Chicago.

Dr. Aaron S. Watkins, Prohibition candidate for president, spoke yesterday at the Central Free Methodist church, declaring that the fight for prohibition has only begun.

HERE'S A MAN WHO RAN A THIN NICKEL UP TO A MILLION

FRANK G. WRIGHT.

Frank G. Wright arrived in Chicago in 1892 with a nickel in his pocket. Mr. Wright arrived in Chicago again yesterday, but this time he carried a million dollars — that is, he is reported to be the possessor of that much wealth.

The nickel was increased to a million during the time that Mr. Wright rose from molder to the vice presidency of the second largest steel casting company in America, at Lima, O.

Mr. Wright was born in Blackburn, England, in 1872 and was brought to the United States when he was 1 year old. He learned the molder's trade at Erie, Pa., and in 1892 caught a freight train to Chicago. He had the lucky 5 cent piece when he arrived. He went to work for the Fowler Wheel company in South Chicago, worked his way up to the managership of the works of the American Steel Foundries, and in 1912 was given the position he now occupies.

THIS FELLOW WHO 'NEEDS A FRIEND' FINDS LOT OF 'EM

Tony Buscay, 9 years old, Rockdale, Ill., attending the Bishop Quarter school in Oak Park, ran away yesterday while the rest of the pupils were in chapel. He was found by Policeman Spoonholtz of Oak Park and is held at the police station until word is received from his father. The sisters at the school refused to take him back because he would run away again.

Tony enjoys being arrested. He has investigated every nook of the police station and fire department. He romped over the fine engine and the patrol, played pool with the firemen, and slid down the brass pole in the fire house at least a hundred times. He slept in a fireman's cot last night, and went to a fire in the chief's big red automobile.

"I hope daddy don't come for me for a long time," said Tony.

He told the police his father, Antone Buscay, travels a great deal. He said that because his half brothers and sisters do not like him and because his mother is dead his father is forced to send him away to school.

Ex-Ald. Clancy Saves Girl Attacked by Dog

Josephine Niddel, 7 years old, 1746 West Erie street, was saved from being severely bitten by a dog which attacked her last night at North Wood street and Wabansia avenue, when ex-Ald. J. E. Clancy beat the dog off after it had bitten her once on the face. The dog is owned by Bessie Jarosz, 1748 West Erie street.

SEPTEMBER Sales for the Home continue their remarkable buying advantages. Constantly new merchandise is arriving. Groups are renewed and replenished, so that selection need not be restricted. Qualities are uniformly fine, giving in each instance a definite emphasis to the low pricings prevailing. Certain groups in these September Sales are especially mentioned here. They are typical of the many others.

Fine Rugs From Asia Minor

Shah-Abbas, Ispahans, Ismidts—In Extra Large Sizes

Men who know rugs, connoisseurs, both of London and Constantinople, have long recognized the wonderful possibility for developing in the rug weaving districts of Asiatic Turkey just the type of Oriental rugs most favored. The Persian method of scouring the wools and twisting the yarns was adopted. So that now there are coming out of the Smyrna district rugs that are wonderful in colorings and patterns and in quality all that is to be desired.

Direct importations of these rugs make it possible for us to secure entire shipments at this time. The prices mentioned are certainly most interesting in consideration of the fine qualities of these rugs. Here follows but a partial list of these rugs presented here—

The Ispahans

A Most Unusual Sale of Sheets and Pillow Cases

"Wamsutta," "New Bedford" and of Percale

Now comes a sale of sheets and pillow cases—of well-known brands—that brings savings of the sort not noted in a long time, we believe. These sheets and pillow cases are of qualities that rarely are to be had at the prices here mentioned, which are possible only because of slight imperfections in weave.

These imperfections are hardly noticeable, however, and in no way affect the wearing qualities of these sheets and pillow cases. The quantity in practically every size is very definitely limited, so early selection is advised.

The Sheets at $1.95 Each
In these sizes:
65 x 90 inches
65 x 99 inches
72 x 90 inches
72 x 99 inches
72 x 108 inches
72 x 113 inches

The Sheets at $2.35 Each
In these five:
81 x 90 inches
81 x 99 inches
81 x 108 inches
90 x 108 inches
90 x 113 inches

The Pillow Cases at 75c Each
In these sizes:

G. O. P. SENATE TO RESTORE TARIFF, POINDEXTER SAYS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—That Republican control of the senate is essential to the enactment of tariff legislation, along the lines of both protection and revenue, is the assertion of Senator Miles Poindexter, chairman of the Republican senatorial committee.

"It is a remarkable circumstance," said the senator, "that on the eve of a national election the most active agitation in behalf of restoration of protective tariff duties comes from that section of the country which has hitherto been most strongly opposed to the principle of protection.

Senate G. O. P. Means More Tariff.

"This demand for protection from Democratic states follows closely on the action of the Democratic national convention in adopting a tariff plank reaffirming the traditional attitude of that party toward the tariff question, which attitude is that a protective traiff is unconstitutional.

"The senate is now Republican by a narrow majority of one vote. The outlook is that the margin will be very slight after the November election. Believers in the principle of protection, as also believers in the policy of raising as large a proportion of our revenue as possible through the customs houses, should make certain that no act of negligence of theirs will assist in turning control of the United States senate over to the Democrats.

Gives Comparative Figures.

"The tariff legislation enacted by the Democratic party has failed both as a measure of protection and as a revenue producer. A compilation of statistics has shown that in seven years under Republican tariff law there were imports of almost $10,500,000,000, on which duties were collected to the amount of nearly $2,200,000,000, or an average rate of 21 per cent, while during seven years of the succeeding Democratic tariff law there were imports of $19,705,000,000, on which duties were collected to the amount of only $1,631,000,000, or an average of 8 per cent. The treasury has lost nearly $4,000,000,000 in revenue at a time when revenue was one of our greatest needs."

IMMIGRANTS TO CITY APPROACH PRE-WAR TOTAL

Miss Grace Abbott, executive secretary of the Illinois immigrants' commission, says the number of foreigners arriving in Chicago is fast approaching the total who came before the war. She says the state is sure to have new problems to deal with as a result of the influx.

"The people now arriving come from suffering and devastated regions of Europe and will no doubt bear the impress of what they have endured during the last six years," Miss Abbott said.

The Illinois commission expects to achieve results by study of the changing conditions, by keeping in touch with immigrant groups, and by making accessible to them official and private agencies, which can be of assistance during their period of readjustment, Miss Abbott added.

Fail at Forcible Feeding of Alleged Dual Slayer

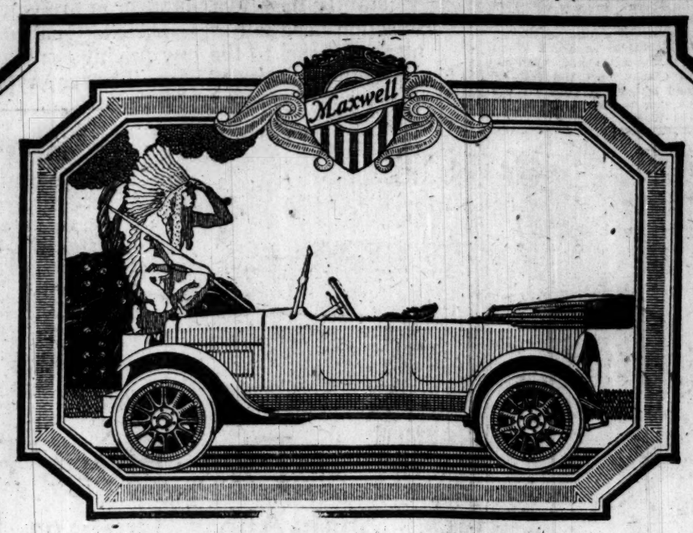

Muskegon, Mich., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Two physicians made an unsuccessful attempt today forcibly to feed Dr. Otis W. Sedgwick of Whitehall, who early Thursday strangled to death his wife and 3 year old daughter. Sedgwick has refused to eat or talk since he was found sleeping in his home by officers. He fought the two doctors and three deputies today when they attempted to feed him by means of a stomach pump.

Slemp Ends Lonesome Role as Virginia Congressman

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 19.—C. Bascom Slemp, for many years the sole Republican member of Virginia's delegation in the house of representatives, announced today in a statement to Republicans of the Ninth Virginia district that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself. He ascribed his decision to ill health and a desire to give more attention to his private business.

Kills Father and Three Others, Ends Own Life

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 19.—Three men, one of them his father, and a woman were shot and killed at Hemford, Lunenburg county, today by Havelock Veinott of that place, who then committed suicide. Veinott attacked the four during a fit of insane rage resulting from an old dispute over the location of a mill dam on his father's property, where the shooting occurred.

Useless Weight Has Been Eliminated in a

MAXWELL

by Special Steels

Just as superfluous weight handicaps the heart and mind of a man, so does superfluous weight handicap the action of a motor car.

Such weight kills tires—
"Eats up gas"—
Kills "pep" in an engine—
Slows down car speed—
Makes repairs costly and too frequent.

Maxwell has no useless weight. Special steels have been used in its construction. They are made to Maxwell's own formulae. They have great strength.

That is why a Maxwell is responsive, develops a high average road speed, is not tiring to drive, has a quick and sure brake action, has long "gas" and tire mileage, and why it is a stranger to the repairman.

Such high efficiency wins many friendships. Figures like these speak eloquently: 5,000 a year six years ago; 100,000 a year today; now over 400,000 in service the world over.

Fried Chicken Cream gravy and Corn fritters

AREN'T you mad about fried chicken when it is fried in butter—when the skin is brown and crisp and crackling and the meat so tender that it falls away from the bones? Gee, can't you smell it and taste it right now?

Is there anyone in the world who doesn't like fried chicken like this—is there anything more alluring to the senses, especially when you are hungry? I fry young chicken here at the Century Cafe just as the old Southern Mammies used to fry it. I make a rich, cream gravy and delicious corn fritters to go with it.

The gravy is made from the juice of the chicken and the brown butter, thickened with the richest of cream. The corn fritters are tender and brown and full of the flavor of the corn. And this entire, fascinating dish is only 50 cents. Where else in the world can you get anything like it for less than twice and three times as much?

Many of you ride for miles and miles into the country—to inns and road-houses looking for just such fried chicken as this. Yet here am I, right in the loop, only a step from your office, frying chicken just as you get it, or used to get it, at home. Come in today and try it. The price is low because we ask you to serve yourself.

Of course, if you don't like fried chicken, remember our home-baked ham, piping-hot, juicy, tender and sliced for you as you order it for 35 cents, or our fresh shrimp salad at 40 cents, fresh lobster salad at 50 cents or any one of a score of different combinations of meats and salads at similar prices, and desserts and pastries that will melt in your mouth.

BESIEGED WOMAN IN AUDITORIUM BAFFLES COPS

A siege in which a woman and a 5 year old boy held a room at the Auditorium hotel for seventy-two hours in defiance of the management, the house detectives, and the Chicago police ended yesterday at 4 o'clock.

The woman is Mrs. Mary M. Bainbridge, frail and petite, and she emerged from the siege with flying colors, dictating her terms of capitulation. Chief of these were that apologies should be offered by the besiegers.

It began last Thursday. Mrs. Bainbridge, said to be a wealthy widow of New Orleans, had been there since Sept. 11, when she was injured in an automobile accident. She was in arrears with her room rent, the management said. Mrs. Bainbridge's version was that she had assured the management she would settle her bill as soon as she communicated with her family.

Rebuffs Squad of Police.

A formal demand for the room was made on Thursday. Mrs. Bainbridge, through her 5 year old son, Robert, informed the management's emissary that she intended to retain the room until she saw fit to relinquish it. The house physician, M. H. Wilkinson, was summoned. His pleading also proved futile.

The management telephoned the Harrison street station. An ambulance with a half dozen policemen responded. They sought to conciliate Mrs. Bainbridge, but she refused to treat with them. The ambulance returned twice daily on Friday and Saturday, but she was adamant.

She said she was a sister of O. A. Simmons, president of the Industrial Investment Corporation of America at Los Angeles. He failed to answer telegrams. Likewise no information was forthcoming from New Orleans. At the Edgewater Beach hotel, where she lived before going to the Auditorium, no one knew who she was.

The Diplomatic Reporter.

A reporter suggested to her that the loop was a noisy place for her and that she would find it more agreeable on the north side.

"I think so, too," she said. "I would like to go."

So the police ambulance was summoned again and she was removed to St. Joseph's hospital. She is said to be suffering from concussion of the brain.

ILLINOIS WILL BACK COL. FOREMAN TO HEAD THE AMERICAN LEGION

COL. MILTON J. FOREMAN.

According to William McCauley, State Commander American Legion, Col. Milton J. Foreman, past Illinois commander, is the department's unanimous choice for national commander. The seventy-one Illinois delegates will go to the national convention in Cleveland on Sept. 27 pledged to draft Col. Foreman to the national office.

During his term of office as Illinois commander, Col. Foreman advanced the membership of his department from 15,000 to more than 65,000. Illinois is second only to New York in paid up members, and first in numbers proportionate to ex-service men living in the state.

NORWOOD PARK IN TERROR OVER BURGLARY WAVE

Taxpayers of Norwood Park, where burglars robbed twenty-five houses Friday night, will petition for adequate police protection. A massmeeting will be called early this week, at which resolutions will be adopted for presentation to the city council, the mayor, and the chief of police.

There is only one patrolman on night duty at Norwood Park. Lieut. Samuel Collins of the Irving Park station pointed out yesterday that more men are needed for the Twenty-sixth precinct. It comprises twenty-three square miles, and with the present force each patrolman's beat is a little more than a square mile.

The slumbers of Norwood Park, which is a 9 o'clock town, were not disturbed by the burglars. Until yesterday it was thought that but one person—George Rodiger, the lamp lighter—saw them. But Henry Peterson reports that he saw four strange men. Robert Krieger, former constable and now night patrolman, was on furlough. He was asleep in his screened porch. The burglars rifled his trousers pockets of $50.

"It looks to me like the work of a bunch of kids," said Capt. Joseph C. Mullin yesterday. "It was my day off, though."

The burglaries have terrorized the citizens, who now sleep with their doors and windows locked. Indicative of this was the experience of a reporter, who was checking the list of victims. He rapped at the door of Krieger's home. It was late at night.

"What do you want?" a male voice asked, and the reporter heard a click and looked into a screened porch on his right, to discover the barrel of a shotgun.

"I'm not a burglar. I'm a reporter," he explained.

"Oh," said Mr. Krieger. "It's a good thing you spoke. I was just going to pot you."

Why do you buy Hosiery with seams?

Is it because you think the better qualities of hose have seams? For many years that was the case as seams offered the only means of giving shape to hosiery. Gradually seams came to be known as a mark of fashioned hose.

Then there is the other type—preferred by some who are willing to sacrifice fitting qualities for the sake of foot comfort—known as seamless hosiery. A knitted tube, with as much yarn in the ankle as at the top of the leg. Absolutely no shape, other than a temporary pressed-in form, which disappears in the wash tub. (And by the way, some of these stockings are now made with a fake seam up the back to fool you—to make you think you are getting shaped hosiery.

After years of experimenting came the new improved process of knitting—invented by Mr. Burson. A process that puts Burson Hose in a class by itself—a class above the "seamed" variety.

Burson have no seams—they're more comfortable than ordinary seamless hosiery because there is not even a seam to close the toe. They are as accurately fashioned as any seamed hose, giving all that good taste expects—a smart, trim fit.

"Burson" knit-in shape cannot be washed out—it lasts as long as the stockings themselves, and that's saying a good deal.

"Acid-Mouth" Drills Away Noiselessly

"Acid-Mouth" can exist in your mouth for years without your knowing it, although you wonder all the while what is causing those cavities in your teeth.

But make no mistake about the ever-threatening danger of "Acid-Mouth." It is estimated to be the chief cause of tooth decay—95 in every 100 persons are said to have it.

Winter's Almost Here!

YOU cannot put off settling the heating question many days longer. If your home is to be comfortable next winter, you must act without delay.

A small payment will put NOKOL in your home.

You can pay for NOKOL while you use it. Convenient terms can be arranged.

It goes into any heating plant, and is approved by the National Board of Fire Underwriters—the only device of its kind that is.

Once installed, your heating troubles will be ended. It operates automatically—a thermostat upstairs maintaining an even temperature, regardless of outside changes.

There is no odor, no soot, nothing to get out of order. Fuel is obtainable everywhere, and the accuracy with which NOKOL can be regulated enables you to heat your home with an economy impossible with coal.

Come in and see for yourself why coal for home heating will soon be obsolete.

LABOR RETAINS FITZPATRICK AS CHICAGO CHIEF

Nockels Again Re-elected as Secretary.

John Fitzpatrick was reëlected president of the Chicago Federation of Labor for the fourteenth consecutive term and Edward N. Nockels was selected secretary for the eighteenth time at the annual election of officers yesterday in Musicians' hall at 175 West Washington street.

JOHN FITZPATRICK. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Both were re-elected by an unanimous vote. The lack of interest in the election was shown when only 307 delegates of the approximate 1,200 local union representatives who have voting power in the federation, cast their ballots.

ED. NOCKELS. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Other officers elected are: Oscar Adams, Post Office Clerks' union, vice president; F. G. Hepp, Cigar Makers' union, financial secretary; Thos. F. Kennedy, Musicians' union, treasurer; Charles H. Plowright, Printing Pressmen's union, reading clerk; Richard M. Olsen, Carpenters and Joiners' union, sergeant at arms. Elizabeth Maloney, Waitresses' union, M. B. Philp, Carpenters and Joiners' union, and Gertrude Stoetzel of the Trade Union Label league were elected members of the finance committee.

Five members were elected to act on the legislative committee. They are Joseph W. Morton, Stationary Firemen and Oilers' union, Harry E. Scheck, Printing Pressmen's union, Steve Sumner, Milk Wagon Drivers' union, Henry Van Artsen, Printing Pressmen's union, and T. G. Vance, Court Reporters' union.

The executive board will consist of Emil Arnold, Painters and Decorators' union, Charles Dold, Pipe and Organ Builders' union, J. A. Kain, Cigar Makers' union, Tim Mesry, Chauffeurs' union, and Robert Weber of the Molders' union.

Ben F. Parker, Waiters' union, Jens Johnson, Shoe and Boot Workers' union, and Ben Ferris of the Lathers' union were selected to represent Chicago at the Illinois State Federation of Labor convention next week.

NEW FIGHT ON 5 N. Y. SOCIALISTS BREWS IN ALBANY

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Indications tonight were that the five Socialist assemblymen ousted as disloyalists from the legislature last spring and re-elected at a special election in New York districts last week, will be allowed to take their seats when the legislature convenes tomorrow night.

Speaker Sweet, leader in the proceedings against the Socialists, had not arrived early tonight for conferences, but it was reported that national and state republican leaders have made known their objection to having the Socialists again refused seats.

More assemblymen, however, have expressed themselves as opposed to giving men their seats, and it nas been reported that resolutions have been prepared to bar them.

Mandel Brothers

"Where costuming is held an art"

An authoritative preliminary exposition of the newest autumn apparel modes

—approved variations of Paris ideas

Imbued with the spirit of the new season, Mandel frocks, wraps, tailleurs of distinguished Parisian and American lineage, owe their distinction to subtly simple lines—to fabrics of silky softness—to flashes of vivid adornment.

Women's new-vogue frocks of cloth and silk

Smartly slender they are from clever neckline to trim hem, and intriguingly ornate with embroidery of beads, silk, tinsel, or lavish fur banding; $45 to $350. The duvetyn model sketched gleams with steel beading and colored stitchery; $195.

Ultra fashionable tailleurs of fall's favored fabrics

Late autumn coat modes in a wealth of rich tones

Coats of luxurious duvetyn, veldyne, chamoistyne, bolivia, with novel loose paneled or blouse back; $50 to $500. The veldyne coat sketched, silk stitched, fur banded, $225.

Misses' engagingly new apparel

To enhance every debutante's charm—authentic, debonair frocks, coats and suits in youthfully becoming contours, cloths and colors. Prices, $35 and up. A stunning suit of taupe or nanking veldyne, squirrel trimmed, as sketched, $250. Fourth floor.

Hudson seal coats of the highest grade

at this season's smallest prices

This opportunity to save on the purchase of your fur coat may best be appreciated after careful comparison with prevailing prices of furs. You then will recognize that, without exception, these are superior to all the hudson seal fur values you have seen. As "the" peltry for fashionable coats, hudson seal is impressively presented in these 1920-21 modes of authentic origin;

coats with Hudson Bay beaver collar and cuffs

The collar is 12 to 14 inches deep. The cuffs are luxuriously wide. The beauty of each desirable model will win the instant approval of Madam and Miss Chicago. Fifth floor.

$610	$465	$415	$525

Fashion Takes From The Gleaming Pages of History, The Picturesque and The Beautiful For The Modes of Today

Fall Opening 1920

This week will be devoted to the complete presentation of the modes of the new season, in all their varied and delightful phases.

Fashions which carry the theme that is to govern style for fall and winter 1920, restricted in their departure from the usual only by that degree dictated by good taste, constitute these displays.

So the Fall Opening of 1920 heralds the beginning of another brilliant fashion season, bringing days certain of pronounced success for those who make their selections now while assortments are in their first freshness.

Women's Frocks—

Frock fashions are a study in line and color. In them one sees intensified the picturesqueness that comes with fall 1920.

Evening gowns asparkle with sequins and misty with lace, afternoon frocks of satins and velvets with gorgeously brocaded sashes, street frocks of Poiret twill or duvetyn gay with beads and embroideries—all carry out the color theme. Priced, according to style and fabric, from $65 to $375.

Fourth Floor, North.

Women's Wraps—

As it belongs in their province, so do wraps take the rich color note of this fall. In an evening wrap of metal cloth, sapphire and gold, the color is accentuated by the lustrous black of lynx fur.

Even for the less formal occasions there are wraps jetted and embroidered. That none of this beauty may be lost, they take the gracious lines of the dolman. Prices vary with fabric and style, $75 to $350.

Fourth Floor, North.

Girls' Apparel—

Simplicity was a maxim well in mind in assembling these assortments. Yet nothing of the very decorative tone of this year's fashions is lost.

Here are schoolroom frocks of serges that flaunt gay Roman sashes. Silken frocks for a schoolgirl's parties. Coats that may do service with both. Frocks vary from $20 to $65. Coats from $20 to $85.

Fourth Floor, East.

Silk Undergarments—

All the loveliness that good taste and skilled designing could give silken undergarments is in these.

Tailored silk undergarments, those more elaborate and those with much lace of the most exquisite kind, all are presented. Prices are widely inclusive.

Third Floor, North.

Wool Fabrics—

There are the fabrics of luxurious textures, evora, marvella, veldyne, duvet de laine, in deep colorings.

The twills in soft finishes—tricofina, Poiret twill, tricotines, Cheruit twill—are for frock fashions. Among the smartest weaves are the fabrics especially for sports wear.

Second Floor, North.

Negligees—

There is an artistry of line, a blending of colors, in these negligees that give to them a loveliness not noted in many a season past.

In one negligee, apple-green satin is veiled in orchid-colored crepe and banded with Persian embroidery. In another of silk velvet in a deep raspberry tone there is a sash lined with sapphire blue crepe, fringed with beads.

From sleeve to sleeve of a negligee of brilliant copper Georgette crepe brocaded in velvet goes a drapery of crepe. Prices, including the simpler negligees, $29.75 to $195.

Third Floor, North.

Corsets—

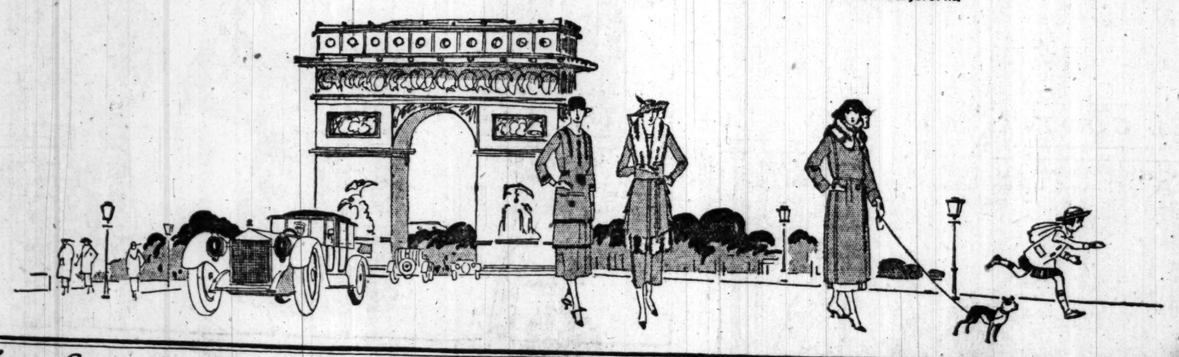

No radical departure in line is introduced. Rather by a clever use of boning and a skilled selection of fabric is there achieved the lithesomeness and grace fashion demands.

French corsets, substantial and well-boned, achieve this silhouette for the heavier types of figure. Priced $18.50 to $45.

Mme. Irene corsets, often developed in suede cloth and silk tricots, have their many characteristic exquisite little touches. Priced $15 to $37.50.

Brassieres, lovely affairs of soft silks and laces, to accompany these corsets. $3.50 to $10.

Third Floor, North.

Women's Suits—

The grace there lies in length of line seems to be the measure of smartness even for suit modes this season. Coats, long in themselves, emphasize their length by bands of furs, or deep borders of embroidery.

Furs are used with a Russian prodigality in collars and cuffs. Entirely new and different are the details of suit skirts, often repeating the decoration of the coat. The simpler type of suit is marked by an exquisite nicety in tailoring. According to style and fabric, $75 to $375.

Fourth Floor, North.

Furs—

There is an appreciation of line evidenced in these furs that makes of them fashions exceedingly distinguished. All the beauty there is in the finest of peltries is preserved. And one notes, too, many little elegancies in the matter of linings and finish that tell of an expert care.

From the regal wraps of broadtail to the most utilitarian type of fur coat—here's all that is best in the new fur fashions.

Fourth Floor, North.

Footwear—

The low-cut type of footwear for afternoon occasions is seen in many new styles, developed in suede in fawn and gray as well as black, and the soft, fine leathers. Their favor is certain. Prices are $12.50 to $18.50 pair.

The street costume is provided for in Oxfords, smart and exceedingly trim. Priced from $9.75 to $16.50 pair.

Third Floor, South.

Misses' Suits—

Decorative as they have never been before, perhaps. Rich cloths are enriched by embroideries. Sashes are fringed and tasseled, even studded in beads and embroidered.

Here one sees a sleeve a bit Chinese. There, a coat that takes the nonchalant lines of a French schoolboy's jacket. Furs and again furs are used.

Play hours have not been overlooked. Here are smart suits with skirts of bright plaids or stripes, and coats of duvetyn. Prices vary with style and material, $75 to $325.

Fourth Floor, South.

Misses' Wraps—

They take the luxurious line of the Dolman, yet remain eminently practical, and that's a young girl's wrap at its best. Unusual sleeves and collars are noted, embroideries and deep furs. Prices, according to style and material, are $60 to $325.

Fourth Floor, South.

Misses' Frocks—

If they had somehow contrived to borrow some of the very charm of youth itself, misses' frocks could not be more winsome and alluring.

Copper-color crepe with vivid Egyptian blue and squirrel fur is used in one lovely frock. Dance frocks of lace are girdled with flowers. Even black velvet is put to work for youth and loses its usual formality.

For street wear, a young girl chooses frocks of Poiret twill with beads and touches of metal threads. Choice from these Opening Week collections, indeed, need be restricted only by one's own requirements. Prices vary with style and material from $65 to $275.

Fourth Floor, South.

Millinery—

Modiste-creators are lavish in the latitude they allow hats. They may be small and snug, of medium sizes, or pictorial in line and gorgeous in garniture.

Laces form the flattering brims of large hats, or fall in soft drapery from small hats. Black is an ever-recurring note. From an eminent designer comes a lace turban. Brilliant lobster-toned velvet is seen in another. Prices are $25 to $100.

Fifth Floor, South.

Silk Fabrics—

The brilliance of the season about to be, may be read in the newly created silks and velvets. Metallic silks, surprisingly soft and supple, merge their lovely tones. Velvets and metals are combined in exquisite weaves.

The silk crepe fabrics are of an unsurpassed loveliness and printed Georgette crepes often take the tones and the motifs of the Orient. Velvets are for street and afternoon styles.

Second Floor, North.

Blouses—

Laces dipped in the palest of gold, laces with copper lights and laces blue and brown many times fashion many of the newest blouses. Duvetyn lends its charm to blouses, often with lace. Brilliant color tones in blouses of Georgette crepe and rich textures are seen. Variety is seemingly infinite. Prices vary with the style and material from $10 to $125.

Fourth Floor, North.

No. 9653 Tells About His Discoveries.

BY EYE WITNESS.

(Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.)

The scene:

A small, clean, high ceilinged, dismal but not squalid room in the federal penitentiary on the outskirts of Atlanta. It is used by visitors who come with permits to see "the inmates" as the warden calls the prisoners. It opens on a broad, airy corridor leading to the inner region of cell blocks, shops, and hospital. A single lofty window, heavily barred, commands a deep embrasure of prison wall and a patch of blue sky.

The time:

A hot September afternoon in mid-Georgia; long perspectives of prison walls, and cement walks and dusty highway radiating heat, but infrequent puffs of breeze from distant hills making the day endurable. The soft air is weighed down with the drowsy hum of dynamos; and that sound is occasionally cut through by the clang of steel doors, or the jubilant, officious notes of birds from the outside, or the scuffing of feet over stone floors, or the lonesome swish of a distant trolley crossing a half-suburban, half-rural area. As afternoon wanes into twilight there is a slow, implacable booming of gongs, and the occasional scuff of feet becomes a steady tramp. These sounds, coupled with the smell of carbolized disinfectant, which in turn is tempered by a smell of vegetable soup that seems a permanency, would inform a blind man that he is in a prison.

No. 9653 Appears.

The persons:

A tall, gaunt, bright-eyed, thin-lipped, spectacled man of 65 years. He is No. 9653, serving ten years for violation of the espionage act, but is better known to the outside world as Eugene V. Debs, for the fifth time candidate of the Socialist party for president of the United States. In the two-piece prison uniform of light blue denim—loose trousers and a tunic buttoned to the throat—this bright-eyed, quick-moving, quick-glancing No. 9653 constantly suggests a busy, cheery, trustful old blue bird with much on its mind. At the bird's side sits its keeper—a kindly, mild-spoken old man whose duty it is to listen to what his prisoner may utter.

Enters now a TRIBUNE reporter. He and No. 9653 greet each other with a conscious effort to appear unconscious of the environment in which they meet. The effort is rather a piteous failure, and the reporter says:

"Well, Mr. Debs, the last time we talked together it was in prison. We were young then, and now we are old; and again it's a prison. I don't believe we can begin this talk better than by my asking you whether it's moved—I mean this world you have been trying to change—in the twenty-five years since that winter day in Woodstock jail."

"I Have Graduated."

"I think that's a good question. I think it means something. We couldn't start the interview better. . . . Yes, yes! It has moved. There have been the most portentous developments since that day in Woodstock, and the most far reaching industrial, political, and social changes in all the history of mankind."

"In my own personal case there has been decided progress in that I have graduated from jail to penitentiary. When we were young I was a jailbird. Now I'm a federal prisoner. That time at Woodstock my reward of merit was six months in the county jail, but since then my services have so increased in demand and importance that I have drawn ten years in the federal penitentiary. This I regard as my principal individual accomplishment.

Has More Faith in World.

"It may seem strange to some, but I have never been more hopeful, more confident of the future, than I am now; nor have I ever had so great a faith in the moral order of the universe as I have today. I have found to my pleasure as well as my profit that going to prison is not only a necessary part but also the most vital part of my education. I have here learned more of what I needed to know in order to know myself and my relation to my fellow men than I could possibly have learned in any college classroom in this country.

"I have come to realize as never before what a perfectly fine thing it is to find yourself on a perfect social level with what are called the meanest and lowest of our kind. I have felt myself exalted in the presence of the unfortunates with whom my lot has been cast, and I can say in all truth that I was never treated more kindly and considerately in all my past life.

"There is a psychology of prisonship that only one who has lived it can understand, and there is a fellowship of misery that generates the true sweetness of human nature—the very milk of loving kindness. I have a far loftier conception of moral values and spiritual riches than I ever had before, and I have reason to thank God for that, if for no other reason, for having not allowed me to escape the penitentiary. From their own harsh and bitter experiences these men I am now with have learned how to sympathize in all sincerity and tenderness. That is what the fellowship of misery means.

Mutual Helpfulness.

"Out of our isolation and our helplessness grows mutual helpfulness. So often, so often I am touched and humbled by their delicacy of feeling—in the little things as well as in the large—as in the hospital when toward the end of each month the store of tobacco runs low. Then what remains is all fairly distributed so that when one quits smoking all quit. Isn't it wonderful that in a prison you find that spirit of one for all and all for one? Isn't it beautiful?"

The aged keeper, sitting at the head of the table, smiles and nods as he listens. Debs leans forward and lays a hand on his shoulder, saying, "You know that what I say is true, don't you, deputy?"

Mr. Ditrichstein at the Studebaker

BY PERCY HAMMOND.

LEO DITRICHSTEIN.
[White photo.]

"THE PURPLE MASK" is a knowing bit of theatrical legerdemain, manipulated sagaciously and with a fine insouciance by the cleverest of the prestidigitateurs. Ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Leo Ditrichstein!

With the debonnair twinkle and disarming palaver of a stage magician he whisks the many crises of the play beneath his cape. Then, presto! he changes them into others, as deftly as Thurston, the Great, might transform a bowl of goldfish into a pot of artificial flowers.

Observe him as closely as you will, he re-forms the most desperate perils into graceful triumphs, causing you in that process to feel the delectable sensation of being thoroughly and dexterously fooled. Shackles are as wax before his benign necromancy, pistols lose their loads; the adjacent guillotine fades into a happy mirage, and Death, discomfited, pursues the baffled retreat of an innocent accessory recruited from the audience.

Mr. Ditrichstein is the chevalier of The Purple Mask, a redoubtable adventurer of France in the lively days when Napoleon was the First Consul. It is his function and his pleasure, as a servant of the King, to perform such kidnapings and other feats as may help the Bourbon Cause and impede the revolution. One of his lesser enterprises may aid you to form an idea of his prowess. Betrayed and captured while endeavoring the abduction of a revolutionary official, he is brought, manacled, before his intended victim and confronted by the scaffold. Smiling and with much nonchalance he informs that official that in seven minutes (by an imposing clock) he himself will be the captive and his prisoner the captor. The doors of the chateau are heavily guarded by highly uniformed hussars, and the park without has a gendarme behind every tree.

You do not see how he can achieve the trick, so hopeless does his extremity appear. But he does so. In seven minutes precisely the manacled prefect, disguised as The Purple Mask, leaves the chateau by one door, while The Purple Mask, pretending to be a prisoner, departs by another. At least I think it was that way, though it was so smoothly done that I may be wrong. At any rate, you can hear the distant sentries calling "Who goes there?"; and the answer, "The Purple Mask, en route to the prison at Evreaux" and again, the answering call, "Pass The Purple Mask!" It was done by confederates, I believe. At another time he dashes a glass of vin rouge into the policeman's eyes, so ready with his wits is he.

Mattheson Lang, the English actor who adapted the play from the French of Paul Armont and Jean Manoussi, has wisely pitted a resourceful detective against The Purple Mask, so that the hero's exploits are not altogether one sided. For instance, when Mr. Ditrichstein opens the dungeon door to kill his imprisoned adversary in the third act he discovers that artful sleuth hanging by a rope from a nail. Shocked by the hideous spectacle, he goes away. As his steps echo down the corridor the supposed corpse frees himself from his spurious noose and sets out, hot-foot, in pursuit. It is just a spirited detective story, all dolled up in curls and a plumed hat.

Mr. Ditrichstein, even in the voluptuous ceremonial of cape and sword melodrama is the most punctilious of players. His shortest steps are timed and measured perfectly; his speech, though musical and rhythmic, is ever the speech of a human being. His flamboyant surroundings are given illusion by that fluent reticence of which he is the master, and he strides not, neither does he rant. Nothing much more can be said about a good actor in melodrama. In "The Purple Mask" he has excellent help from Albert Brown, who acts the shifty Brisquet, his opponent, playing admirably a dual part. Orlando Daly is satisfactorily in the cast, and Miss Alice Haynes impersonates better than she looks, the rôle of the lady—no less a person than Laurette de Chateaubriand, at whose feet Mr. Ditrichstein kneels at propitious intervals, with words of passion on his lips.

GO HOME, GRACE; BROTHER CALVIN WANTS TO MARRY

A heartbroken father appealed to THE TRIBUNE yesterday to help him find his daughter, who ran away from home a week ago last Saturday with a widow twenty years her senior.

GRACE McCRAY.

The girl is Grace McCray, 13 years old. She would pass for 17 or 18. Her father, G. G. McCray, gave her 25 cents to attend a moving picture theater, but upon leaving her home, 2097 Stave street, she met Mrs. Estelle Reed, 33 years old, 2140 Milwaukee avenue, and the two disappeared.

They were later seen at Riverview park. Mr. McCray believes the girl was led away by Mrs. Reed, slim, blonde, and a divorcee, and that his daughter now fears to come home. The McCray girl has thick, short hair, and weighs about 128 pounds. She is a brunette.

P. S.—If you see this, Grace, your brother Calvin is just waiting for you to come home. He wants to get married, so there will be another girl in the home for company. Dad said he wouldn't scold, either.

WOMAN CHOKED TO DEATH BESIDE HER SON'S GRAVE

New York, Sept. 19.—[Special.]—With clothing ripped to shreds and finger prints on the neck, the body of Mrs. Trembowitz, 66, South Amboy, N. J., was found late last night in Ernston cemetery, South Amboy, within a short distance of the grave of her hero son, upon which she had just placed a wreath.

The ground showed signs of a terrific struggle. The woman's clothing had been torn in an effort by the murderer to find the large sum of money it was generally believed Mrs. Trembowitz carried.

DRIVEN MAD BY COAL SHORTAGE, DEALER A SUICIDE

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 19.—As a direct result of worrying over the coal situation, William H. Johnson, aged 54, shot and killed himself today in the warehouse of the Johnson Transfer and Fuel company.

Owing to the pressure of customers for coal the last few weeks, with the inability of the company to get coal enough to keep up with the demands, Mr. Johnson had worked himself into a state of nervous exhaustion, leading to derangement, his physician states.

"They Got Me This Time," Man Says After Beating

James Considine, 7612 Jeffery avenue, manager of the Chicago Fire Brick company's branch yard at Seventy-sixth street and Jeffery avenue, was attacked by three men early yesterday morning. The men made no attempt to rob him. His wife heard him say "they got me this time," before he became unconscious. Considine told the police he did not know who the men were, or why they had attacked him, but he said he had seen them loitering about his home for a week.

THIS CAT FOILS POLICE, BULLETS AND UNDERTAKER

And She Lives Still to Yowl in Evanston.

Riches cannot buy contentment. There is Mrs. L. E. Raymond, whose twenty-two room mansion overlooks Lake Michigan at 715 Sheridan road, Evantson. Her bluebird of happiness flew out the window of her music room last evening when a matronly Maltese cat leaped on the sill and began caterwauling.

Mrs. Raymond arose, walked to the telephone, and informed Capt. Dennis McHenry of the Evantson police department:

"Yes, indeed," replied Capt. McHenry, and summonded Policeman Antonio Schultz and Leo Larkin. They cranked the department flivver, hopped in, and sped to Mrs. Raymond's home. The cat was still on the window sill.

Lassoos the Cat.

"Kitty, kitty," called Mr. Larkin, but it declined to be wheedled. Mr. Schultz, who used to be a cowboy in southern Illinois, thereupon lassooed it with a tow line.

He tapped it smartly on the head with his night stick, untied the lasso, and tossed it into the flivver. He was at the crank, when it jumped up, and perched on Mr. Larkin's shoulder. Mr. Larkin held it, while Mr. Schultz extracted a tire chain from the flivver tool chest, and enfolded the cat in its nonskid links.

Ordering Mr. Larkin to sit on the cat, Mr. Schultz headed for the station. In front of the residence of Harry Throop, vice president and general manager of the Goodrich Transit company, the cat leaped out of the auto. The two policemen drew their revolvers and opened fire. They fired nine times.

Dodges the Undertaker.

"Make sure it's good and dead, and bury it," ordered Schultz.

Mr. Heaps brought forth his embalming fluid and apparatus, and laid the patient on the operating table. It jumped up as he was rolling up his sleeves and disappeared out the back door.

SLEUTHS POSE AS AUTO THIEVES; 5 CAUGHT IN TRAP

By masquerading as automobile thieves Detective Sergeants Sweeney, Revere, and McDonald captured five Negroes, four of whom confessed stealing two cars from the Rienzi garage, at 534 Diversey parkway, after they had bound the night watchman, Daniel Mercadantie, robbed him of $15, and thrown him in an elevator shaft, Aug. 2.

The detectives called Wilson up and asked him if he could tell them where they could sell a couple of cars, intimating they had been stolen.

"Sure, I know a guy who'll buy em," Wilson replied.

Harris confessed he had bought the stolen cars for $500. They were worth about $4,000.

VICTIMS IDENTIFY "APACHES"; FILE HOLDUP CHARGES

Victims of the seven self-styled Chicago Apaches, who recently confessed committing a number of holdups in Lovers' lane, near Evanston, went to Town Hall station yesterday and signed complaints against them.

Many of the victims could not identify the men, but others, including David Dempsey of 4108 Ogden avenue, Carl Willma of 1753 Hastings street, and William Schatz of 3548 West Fifteenth street, the last two Yellow cab chauffeurs, remembered their faces. The police and state's attorney's office still hope to prove the "Apaches" were connected with the shooting of Howard B. Rhodes, murdered while in the company of Mrs. Gladys Virginia Jacobson.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

TWO POLICEMEN SUSPENDED AS BRIBE TAKERS

Accused by 2 Owners of Saloons.

The complainants are Joseph Pischinski, proprietor of a saloon at 2519 West Forty-third street; his bartender and son-in-law, Albert Jablowski, and Mrs. Jablowski. She telephoned the New City station Thursday night:

"There are two policemen here. They just made my husband pay $20 on threat of arresting him for selling liquor."

Identify Policemen.

Patrol Sergeant William Leebeck was assigned by Capt. Mathew Zimmer to investigate. Mrs. Jablowski and her husband supplied descriptions that tallied with those of Heinen and Sullivan. Yesterday she and her husband identified them.

While this was happening John Lavannas, proprietor of a saloon at 4258 Maplewood avenue, entered the station. He said: "Two policemen entered my place Thursday night, searched it, and said, 'If you don't give us $400 we'll have you arrested for selling liquor.' I said I didn't have it, but would have it Friday. They didn't come back Friday."

Points Out Same Men.

Lavannas confronted Heinen and Sullivan and identified them as the policemen who had visited him. They will be arraigned before the police trial board this week on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer, neglect of duty and acceptance of a bribe.

Robbers Slash Victim with Knives and Razors

Edward Moran, a former jockey at the Louisville, Ky., race track, is in the county hospital with several knife wounds in his neck, received last night in an encounter with three highwaymen at Vernon Park place and Aberdeen street, who robbed him of $40. Moran told the police he was attacked with knives and razors.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.

Where Asked.

The Answers.

Irene Quick, 12 East Grand avenue, stenographer—The children of today are much better educated and are better able to grasp what their parents want to impress upon them and for this reason they are more likely to heed warnings and advice than the child of yesterday. A little talking to them is better than corporal punishment.

Marie O'Connor, 53 North Menard avenue, Austin, stenographer—I think that kind words and advice will go a whole lot further than a whipping to make them mind. A child frightened by threats and beatings will never be as bright as those disciplined with kindness.

Bunnie Day Pouk, 3412 West Adams street, clerk—I believe in the old rule, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." I think it is better to give a child a good spanking. It will then understand that it should not commit the same offense again.

John Powell, Hotel Sherman, deputy collector—I am in favor of bringing up children as they used to do—never spare the rod. Of course I do not approve of beating children, but a little paddling now and then will do 'em good.

Margaret Schuberth, 8108 South Peoria street, clerk—I do not believe in whipping children. It hurts their minds more than it hurts their bodies. If a child is always punished with a stick it grows rebellious, and will only cause more trouble for the parents.

MISS, 16, ELOPES WITH WAR HERO; WANTS HER MAMA

Then Wire Brings a Tragic Message.

Until three weeks ago Paducah was the farthest 16 year old Galena Howard had ever been from her home town of Calvert, Ky. And then Thomas Jalnemro came back.

It was during the war she met him. He was stationed at a training camp near Calvert. His home was in New York City and he was different from any of the home boys. He told her fascinating stories of the big city. But best of all he told her that he loved her. Galena promised to wait for him. She did—all through the war—and corresponded with him, but her parents did not know it.

They Elope; Funds Dwindle.

They eloped, as he called it, three weeks ago. First they went to Cincinnati, then to Cleveland, then to Chicago. Jalnemro had $1,000 when they started. When Detective Sergeants John Lahey and Charles Welling of the bureau arrested him on a charge of abduction last night he had but $40.

"I'm glad it's over. It wasn't like I thought it would be," said Galena.

They were in a small rear room of the Hotel Mayer, at Roosevelt road and Wabash avenue. He was taken to the bureau, she to Detention Home No. 3.

Mamma Is Dying; Hurry Home.

Lahey looked at her. In his hand he held a telegram. It was from her sister, Mrs. Clyde Crane of Paducah, Ky., who had caused Jalnemro's arrest on a charge of abduction. It read:

Lahey whispered to Welling.

"Well, Galena," he said. "We'll do all we can to see that you start for home tomorrow."

Visitor Pays $7.40 for Bed in a Coal Pile

Frank Muchy of Chicago wanted a soft place to sleep in Waukegan Saturday night, so he chose a coal pile in the basement of the North Shore dairy. Policeman Bronce discovered the visitor at 2:30 a. m., and after washing the coal dust from his face, brought him to court, where he paid $7.40 for the night's lodging.

FINGER PRINTS FORGERY LAID TO NAVAL OFFICER

"Fraud Proof" Scheme to Protect Pay Fails.

It was by the forgery of finger prints—a unique method in the United States—that Lieut. S. F. Sullivan, in charge of the recruit pay roll at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, embezzled thousands of dollars of the funds in his charge, according to naval authorities.

The story was told yesterday for the first time since the officer's apprehension. The exposure, it was said, has vitally interested the entire navy, and may even result in a radical change in the navy system of pay.

The alleged fraud involves the navy's recent order that all men signing the pay vouchers should also sign with their finger prints. Thus each voucher would have the sailor's signature and the added identification, which cannot be duplicated. The method was declared fraud proof.

Finger prints, however, are easy to make, and it is not hard to blur them—with cardboard, for instance—so they cannot be properly identified.

Juggled Deserters' Accounts.

The recruits are paid twice a month—but when a man deserts his account is closed and sent to the bureau of navigation in Washington. Therefore Lieut. Sullivan, according to intelligence department agents, confined himself to juggling accounts of deserters, issuing pay checks to them before closing their accounts, dating them, and signing them by hand and by finger—the finger prints being blurred.

It was an anonymous letter that led to the detention of Lieut. Sullivan. It was received at the commandant's office, and suggested it would be wise to investigate Sullivan's accounts.

Seeming irregularities were found. The intelligence office was notified, but there was apparently no way in which to trap the guilty person.

Everything Appears O. K.

Looking over a batch of pay checks, nothing seemed wrong. Every voucher was twice protected—or so it appeared. To check up on every one of the thousands of vouchers would be a difficult task. It would require finger print experts to compare the prints on the vouchers with the original prints on the enlistment papers.

The intelligence agents had a simpler and quicker scheme. They had the theory that the system was being worked only on deserters. They captured several deserters. They asked them about certain vouchers. And so the alleged scheme was discovered. But for the anonymous letter the voucher might never have been examined.

Sullivan was arrested because he was in absolute charge of the recruit pay roll. He lives at 850 Margate terrace with his family. He is a lieutenant, junior grade, by temporary commission. Otherwise he is a warrant officer with the title of pay clerk.

His Accounts Checked Up.

He came to the station last November. His accounts from July until his arrest have been checked up and a shortage of $800 has been found. Incidentally the statement made Saturday that a $6,000 discrepancy had been discovered and the amount of the alleged embezzlement might reach $75,000 was not borne out yesterday. It is expected the total shortage will not reach over $4,000. The work of checking on the accounts between November and July will begin today.

Meantime Lieut. Sullivan, though held under arrest, has been accorded every consideration by the commandant, and will be allowed to consult with his attorney today.

The lieutenant would not talk to a TRIBUNE reporter, but promised him a statement as soon as he had legal advice.

Investigators are preparing a report for Secretary of the Navy Daniels, and it is believed that any action to be taken will be for him to decide. No general court martial board has yet been appointed to try the officer.

TALE OF A TAIL A FLEA BIT, AND A MISSING BOY

Infinitessimal, indeed, are the causes which shape destiny. There was, for example, the flea which alighted yesterday upon the tail of the rat terrier of George Stofel, 2 years and 6 months old—George, not the terrier—the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stofel, 236 South Park avenue, Oak Park.

GEORGE STOFEL.

Observe the working of the law of cause and effect. The flea bit the tail. The dog snapped at the flea and bit himself. He barked, awakening George, who climbed out of bed, picked up the dog, and started out for a walk.

They met a policeman—Harry Stoholtz—who carried them to the station. George's parents missed him. They telephoned the station, and George was recovered.

Worthington Tells His "Pursuers" Where He Is

Attorney Samuel Block announced yesterday that persons concerned in meeting John W. Worthington, who is charged with various bond thefts and who was declared to have disappeared, may find him at his office, 30 North Dearborn street, or at the office of Mr. Block in the City Hall Square building at 9:30 o'clock today.

TRIAL OF PACKING CONCERN'S HEADS TO BEGIN TODAY

Charged with Using the Mails to Defraud.

Eight officials and directors of the Consumers Packing company are to go on trial today before Judge Evan Evans in federal court charged with conspiracy to use the mails in a scheme to defraud. Assistant District Attorney Roy J. Egan will conduct the prosecution. Several thousand persons—nearly all in moderate circumstances—are the alleged victims.

The defendants are Eli Pfaelzer, president of the concern; Edward J. Ader, secretary and treasurer; Miss Goldie Skolnik, secretary to Ader; Louis A. Davis and John M. Kantor, fiscal agents; Edwin H. Troost, Rabbi A. J. Messing, and Benjamin E. Turner, directors.

Grew Out of Bankruptcy Case.

The criminal charges grew out of an involuntary hearing in bankruptcy in 1919. Judge Landis took a hand in the examination and eventually the operations of the company were disclosed.

According to the testimony, the widow's mite, the working man's savings for a rainy day, the patriotic but poor citizen's Liberty bonds all went in exchange for stock of the company. Nearly 150 persons who had given their savings for the stock complained to Judge Landis, who called in District Attorney Clyne.

How the Business Was Done.

It was developed that purchasers of stock were to be paid dividends before the concern got into operation. Some witnesses testified they had received dividends of 4 per cent. The plan of the company, it was disclosed, was to make some payments of dividends out of stock sales to encourage buying of stock by others.

The indictments charge that the defendants sold $800,000 worth of stock, $500,000 of which was used for promotional purposes. The fiscal agents, Kantor and Davis, it is charged, hired the salesmen and Rabbi Messing lent the use of his name for the selling of stock.

STRAYING YOUNGSTER FINDS GOOD CARE IN QUEST OF ADVENTURE

Missing from his home at 1749 West Van Buren street since Friday morning, "Bobbie" Johnson, 3 years old, was found yesterday in the care of Mrs. Margaret Callan at 1747 Mathew street. His mother feared he had been kidnaped. Mrs. Callan found Bobbie asleep in an alley near her home Friday night. She had taken good care of him.

CICERO MAYOR ASKS HELP FOR HIS PEACE ARMY

Mayor J. Z. Klenha of Cicero, who several days ago suspended his chief of police, Edward Hall, last night asked Chief of Police Garrity for a detail of policemen to help preserve order at a massmeeting tonight.

The town is divided over the question of the suspension of the police chief, and feeling runs high.

Fearing that the two factions will stage a demonstration at the massmeeting to discuss the question, the mayor has sworn in one hundred special policemen. He wants the Chicago policemen to back up his special force.

Cop Timber Is Scarce; East Chicago Advertises

You know "It's toasted." But do you know why?

LUCKY STRIKE is the toasted cigarette. Lucky Strike is the toasted pipe tobacco. And because Lucky Strike is toasted it preserves the Burley flavor for you until you smoke it.

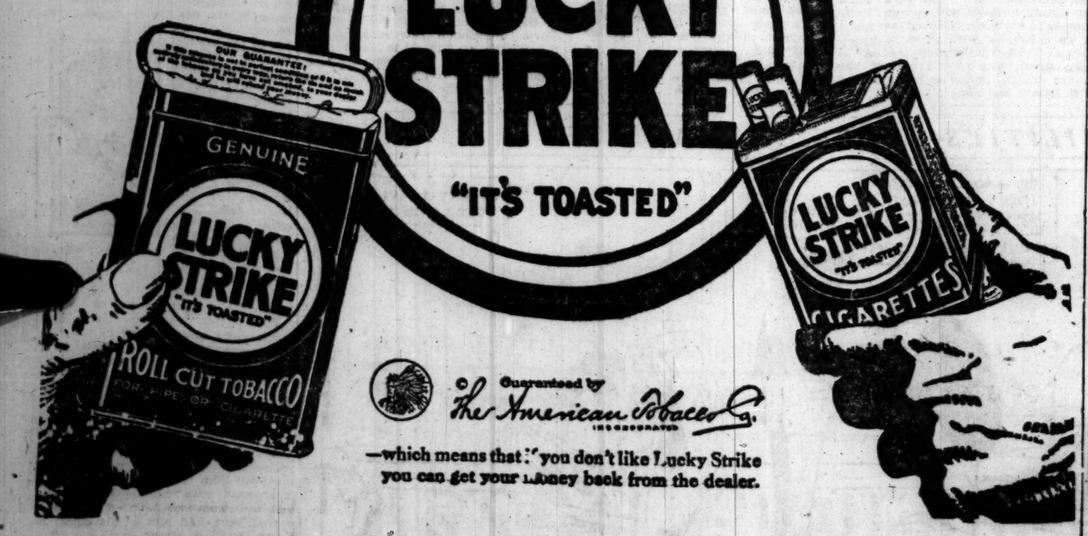

The exact reason for this is interesting. You see, when Lucky Strike is toasted the heat closes the pores in the Burley leaves, and literally seals in the Burley flavor. It stays there for months—years—until it is released by burning in your pipe or cigarette.

Or take the method of the bee. You can put a honey-comb away for months or years and the flavor is always there—inside. This is because the bee puts a thin coating of wax over the honey and seals it in, so it lasts forever.

Whether you are a cigarette smoker or a pipe smoker you should get acquainted with the special and lasting flavor of toasted Burley tobacco—to be found only in the Lucky Strike brand. Buy a package and you will notice this improved taste immediately.

BATTERIES

The First Automobile Starting Battery

Not so long ago all automobiles were cranked by hand. The year 1911 saw the first car regularly furnished with electric starting and lighting equipment. It had an Exide Battery. Every car of this make since then, and hundreds of thousands of other automobiles, have placed their reliance in Exide Batteries.

The first starting and lighting battery was made possible through the experience of the manufacturers of Exide in building batteries for every industrial and government purpose since the beginning of the battery industry. In fact, the entire evolution of the storage battery is little else than a record of the makers of Exide Batteries.

Today Exides are used by the navies of various nations, the Bell telephone system, Marconi wireless, in 95% of the central stations of our great cities, in industrial trucks, mine locomotives, for lighting farm homes, and for a score of other purposes where a battery must have lasting power.

Back of every Exide is the experience and resources of the oldest and largest manufacturers of storage batteries in the world.

STAGG MOLDING GRID PLANS FOR NEXT TWO YEARS

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Coach Stagg of Chicago will leave nothing undone to develop a football team which will be a strong contender for conference honors. He also is quietly laying plans for the two game series with Princeton which starts next year with a battle on the Tigers' gridiron and the return contest in Chicago in 1922.

A. A. STAGG. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

For this reason the Maroon mentor will keep a keen eye on the freshmen who who turn out for football this year. Stagg will take particular pains to find out how much prep football they have played, and then determine just how much attention they should receive.

Thus while he is developing the freshman team, so that it will give the varsity the necessary test in scrimmage, he also will be providing material for making good on his challenge to the Tigers.

Intersectional Scouting.

The series between Chicago and Princeton will attract no end of attention from the football world. The results will be watched with interest, regardless of the strength of the teams, as the games will be representative of the brand of football played in the two sections of the country. Both squads will be watched closely by scouts this year, so the rival coaches may have an idea of the style of play used by the other.

Football squads in all sections of the country will settle down to practice in earnest today. The easy part of the fall grind is a thing of the past, and from now until the final games are played the warriors must expect the hardest kind of work. Scrimmages will be held before the end of this week, and by the time the season opens officially, Oct. 2, coaches will have a good idea as to the makeup of their elevens.

Iowa and Indiana Clash Early.

With the exception of Jones at Iowa and Stiehm at Indiana, coaches of other conference teams are developing their squads gradually. The Hawkeyes and Hoosiers are scheduled to meet at Bloomington Oct. 2 in what promises to be a great battle. Both teams will be strong this year, and as the loser will be eliminated from the championship race, neither coach will leave anything undone to have his team in the best of form.

At Northwestern Coach McDevitt is pointing his team for the Knox game on Oct. 2. This contest will be only a stepping stone in the eleven's development for the Minnesota clash the week following. Knox is a stronger team than usual this year, and the Purple mentor will have to place his best on the field to hold the Galesburg team. Coach McDevitt, however, will use only a simple attack in this game.

Cornell Captain Quits School; Faculty Cause

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Cornell football prospects sustained a blow today with the written announcement by John Shuler, captain and fullback, that he will not return to school. Shuler gave as his reason disappointment at the treatment he declares was accorded him by the faculty. Shuler's home is in Davenport, Ia.

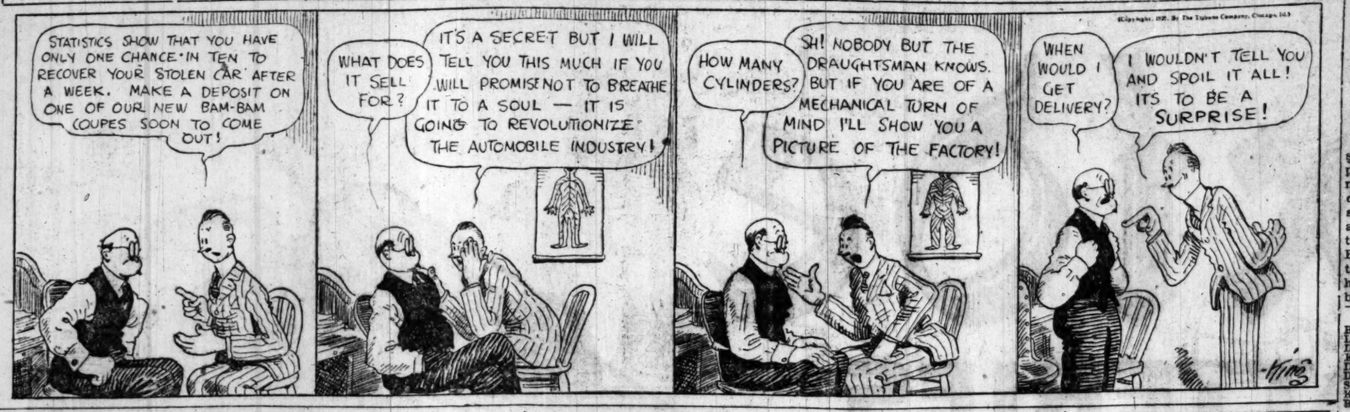

Vardon and Ray Taken Into Camp in 2 Matches

New York, Sept. 19.—Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, British golf pros, suffered a double defeat today at the Englewood [N. J.] Country club. Bobby Jones, the youthful Atlanta star, was a member of both victorious teams. On the first round the veteran Britishers lost, 3 and 2, to Jones and Cyril Walker, Englewood professional, and lost the second round to Jones and Oswald Kirkby, former metropolitan champion, by the same score.

Hutchinson and Ayton Beat Brady and Hampton

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 19.—Jock Hutchinson, Chicago, western open champion, paired with Laurie Ayton, Chicago, defeated Mike Brady of this city and Harry Hampton of Richmond, Va., 6 and 4, in eighteen holes at the Brookland Golf and Country club today.

SHOTS ON THE LINKS By JOE DAVIS

A GOLFING treat has been arranged for Westward Ho members for next Sunday, when Chick Evans and A. A. Basse will meet Bob MacDonald, the Bob o' Link professional, and A. J. Ewing in a thirty-six hole match.

The Glen Oak Country club will stage its annual "Round Up" invitation tournament Oct. 1 and 2. The qualifying round will be at eighteen holes and the field will be divided into flights of eight. The main prize is the "Round Up" trophy, which will go to the player getting low gross for fifty-four holes.

* *

Over forty pros already have entered the open tournament to be staged by the West Baden Springs club Oct. 26 and 27. The event will be at seventy-two holes, medal play, and the prize list totals $1,000.

LAST BIT OF RESERVE LANDS C. STOCKHOLM AS BIKE RACE WINNER

Carl Stockholm of the Alverno A. A., who represented America in the Olympic games, yesterday copped the twenty mile open scratch race, feature event of the first annual bicycle derby of the North Italian Cycling club, held over the two and one-fifth mile course in Humboldt park.

The event was keenly contested between six of the best local riders, and Stockholm won the verdict over Walter Witzke, also of the Alverno A. A., by less than a foot. Scarcely three yards separated the first and sixth finishers.

A. Van Stenhlat of the Belgian-American C. C. won the honors in the class B eleven mile event and Roy Schoenneman of Alverno A. A. was victor in the class C race.

The contests were witnessed by a large crowd. Summaries:

20 miles, class A—Won by Carl Stockholm, Alverno; Walter Witzke, Alverno, second; Roy McWhirter, I. A. C., third; Oscar Martens, Belgian-American C. C., fourth; Monroe Nolen, Franklin, fifth; Oscar Hansen, Alverno, sixth. Time, 52:25 2-5.

11 miles, class B—Won by A. Van Stenlat, Belgian-American C. C.; Oscar Martens, Belgian-American C. C., second; E. Stasch, Franklin, third; H. Zimmerman, Alverno, fourth. Time, 28:57 4-5.

4 2-5 miles, class C—Won by Roy Schoenneman, Alverno; E. Seigler, Franklin, second; H. Zimmerman, Alverno, third. Time, 10:08.

2 1-5 miles, women—Won by Miss Gladys Birkland, Franklin; Miss Rina Salina, North Italian C. C., second. Time, 6:17. Two starters.

4 2-5 miles, boys under 16 years—Won by Leroy Mass, Franklin; Walter Tetzioff, Franklin, second; Oscar Schmidt, Franklin, third. Time, 12:49 4-5.

Phillips Sr. Wins Class A Shoot at Lincoln Park

W. E. Phillips, Sr. again was high gun among Class A shooters in the Sunday shoot of Lincoln Park Gun club. Shooting at 50 targets from 22 yards, Phillips broke 41 in the face of a strong east wind. J. H. May was runner-up with 40. W. E. Phillips Jr. and C. P. Sheldon tied for honors in the Class B competition with totals of 45. Sheldon called the turn of the coin for the trophy. J. Sprungsguth was high in Class C and L. Lozier in Class D.

VOX POP ON SPARROWS.

LAKE FOREST, Ill.—[To the Editor.]—May I "Vox Pop" a bit on English sparrows? I note in the W. G. N. a statement from a fellow birdlover, E. C. R., from Kenilworth, in which he says the "sparrow never bothers the tree birds."

I wish to take exceptions to that statement, for I have observed English sparrows deliberately tear apart a robin's nest in which there were young birds. They were frightened away repeatedly, but returned and continued their destruction. To be sure, this occurred down in Indiana, and possibly Hoosier sparrows are not so polite and well bred as Kenilworth birds. I do know that in the same garden in which the robin's nest was destroyed there is a bird bath in which robins, English sparrows and blue jays have been observed all bathing together.

Our English friends suffer many things not only at the hands of humans, but from other birds; I have observed on several occasions, during the time when there were young in the nests of both species, blue jays robbing the nests of the sparrows, as well as many nests of English sparrows which had been destroyed and the young thrown on the ground by king birds. I am glad to note that E. C. R. has a good word to say for the Britisher, for, although as a bird he lacks song and beauty and is a noisy, dirty, quarrelsome fellow, he certainly does stay by us when many of our feathered friends desert us—and whisper—when I lived in the country, I used to feed him all winter.

He cannot help having been born an English sparrow, and probably regrets it as much as some of us regret having been born as we are, but he makes the best of it just as we have to do. He did not ask to come to America, and, as always happens when man tries to improve on God's arrangements, a mess was made by importing the much maligned English house sparrow.

NORMALS LOSE TO PYOTTS, 7-2, ON ONE BAD INNING

Bill Niesen's Pyotts slipped a decisive defeat to the Normals in an interpark series game yesterday at the winner's field, 7 to 2. The affair was decided in the first inning when five scored on a couple of hits, two errors, and "Silk" Kavanaugh's home run with two on. After that bad start "Gob" Buckeye, the burly left hander, settled and pitched effectively. Baichley had the Normals stopped all the way, being aided by tight support. Score:

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

to every smoker of Robt. Burns Cigars

FIRST let us make plain three facts:

[1]

During the past few years the prices of Havana and Sumatra tobaccos have steadily advanced. The profit on Robt. Burns Cigar has at times fallen distinctly below a safe business margin. This margin of profit has at times approached the vanishing point.

[2]

At no time have we compromised in the slightest the quality of Robt. Burns Cigar. To this formula we stand committed: Full, long-leaf Havana filler of fine selection, toned to agreeable mildness through our special process of curing and wrapped in the finest obtainable Sumatra leaf.

[3]

Our latest purchases of Havana and Sumatra leaf for Robt. Burns were made with our usual care and after the widest possible survey of market conditions.

Yet for that leaf we had to pay much higher prices than ever before.

IT IS OUR BELIEF that the smoker of Robt. Burns would much prefer to pay a slight advance in price rather than face the slightest let-down in the quality of his cigar

To maintain that quality it has become imperative that we add 2c apiece to the retail price of Robt. Burns Cigar.

The price of Robt. Burns Invincible is now changed to 15c; the new price of Longfellow is 17c.

There are no indications in sight at the present to warrant a decline in the price of Havana and Sumatra leaf tobacco. When such time arrives, we promise that the smokers of Robt. Burns Cigars will receive the benefit at the earliest possible moment.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

After handing the Athletics a lead of three runs on nothing in three innings yesterday, the White Sox pulled themselves together and yanked the game out of the fire by a determined rally in the sixth, emerging victors by the narrow margin of 5 to 4.

Claude Williams started pitching against the Mackmen, but he wasn't right, and the fact was so apparent he was taken out after three rounds, in which considerable damage had been done to the pennant hopes of the Gleason tribe. Three tallies were chalked up for the enemy, errors by Williams and John Collins being responsible for all of them.

Finally Produce Some Support.

Roy Wilkinson replaced the local southpaw and received rotten support in the fourth inning, in which the Mackmen added another unearned run to their grist. Roy and his support settled after that but the Sox were having tough sledding against the stuff Rommel was handing out from the slab for the visitors.

A triple by Jackson and Felsch's long fly broke into the run column for the home folks in the fourth, but things were looking gloomy until the last half of the sixth. The Sox rallied then and rushed into the lead with a cluster of four runs, driving Rommel off the hill and compelling Manager Mack to send Perry to the rescue. In the making of that rally Wilkinson disappeared in favor of Eddie Murphy as a pinch hitter and Dick Kerr held the game safely the rest of the way with only one run margin.

E. Collins Starts Things.

Eddie Collins led the attack which brought home the goods. He started the sixth with a single to left. Jackson hit to the same spot. Felsch bundled a single over second, scoring the captain and sending Jackson to third. J. Collins popped out but Risberg kept the rally going with a single to left, scoring Jackson. Johnson fumbled the hit an instant and gave Felsch a chance to dash for third in safety. Schalk was passed, filling the bags with one out, and Perry was inserted in place of Rommel. At the same time Murphy was sent to bat for Wilkinson.

Risberg Steals Home.

Eddie won the game without making a base hit. He slapped a bounder to Dykes, forcing out Schalk, but he beat the attempted double play easily, and allowed Felsch to score the tying run. Then Murphy started a double steal on which Risberg registered the winning tally from third by a wide margin.

The Athletics made only six hits altogether and would not have been in the running but for the wretched third. Williams gave Galloway a life by a wide throw. Rommel bunted and again Williams threw wildly to first, but J. Collins stretched and got the verdict for him.

Dykes popped a foul which J. Collins muffed ingloriously, then soaked a single through Weaver. Williams hit Griffin, filling the bases. C. Walker's long fly scored Galloway and Perkins visited a drive into the left field corner, scoring Dykes and Griffin. Perkins overran third on his hit and was retired.

FANS LOSE PATIENCE AT OFFICIAL LAGGING IN BASEBALL SCANDAL

Failure of baseball officials to satisfy fans that rumors of crookedness in the 1919 world's series were being investigated led to the writing of the letter by Fred M. Loomis of Chicago, published in THE TRIBUNE yesterday. Mr. Loomis, as well as a host of his friends, according to Mr. Loomis, have waited patiently for nearly a year, believing the affair would be cleared up.

Just what was accomplished by President Comiskey of the White Sox never was made public. At no time has the south side magnate felt able to say he could produce absolute evidence of any wrongdoing by his players. On one or two occasions, following investigations of clews, he stated no evidence was procured.

Clew in St. Louis.

It was known that he investigated one clew in St. Louis. Investigators went there after the series, but returned empty handed, or at least without evidence strong enough to carry into court. Later in the winter, two St. Louis men, known to have attended the world's series and wagered heavily on Cincinnati, came to Chicago and met Comiskey.

After an afternoon session in the presence of Comiskey and his attorney, a statement was given out that nothing in the way of absolute evidence had been obtained. Since then there has been no report from the Sox officials.

Evidence Still Missing.

In the meantime, however, the scandal talk has spread until it is familiar to hosts of fans all over the country. During the summer one heard more talk of it in other cities than in Chicago, and a number of ardent supporters of the game who absolutely refused to believe anything wrong in the early weeks and months following the series finally switched over to the other side. Regardless of that, no one has come to the front with evidence.

So far as is known, President Comiskey never has had a talk with President Johnson of the league regarding the scandal.

TIGERS, 9-3; GRIFFS, 7-2.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 19.—Detroit took two games from Washington, 9 to 7 and 3 to 2. The first game was a loosely played affair, featured by Cobb's steal of home. In the second game Detroit bunched hits on Shaw in the first inning for three runs, a lead which Washington could not overcome. Scores:

Washington	320	002	000—7 10 3

RECRUIT HURLS CUBS TO 5-0 WIN OVER BALTIMORE

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Percy Jones, Cub recruit from West Texas, worked against the Baltimore Drydock team today and won, 5 to 0. He allowed only seven hits. More than 8,000 people crowded into Oriole park, which used to be the Federal league grounds. The drydock team fielded without an error and the Cubs had to bat in their runs. Score:

Tulsa Wins Pennant in Western; Wichita Second

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 19.—By splitting even in a double header with Sioux City today, Tulsa, Okla., won the Western league pennant. Had Tulsa lost both games, Wichita would have been the winner, as the latter club took two games from Omaha.

SPEAKERS KEEP PACING HOSE AS BAGBY WINS 29TH

Cleveland, O., Sept. 19.—Cleveland defeated Boston in the first of the series today, 2 to 0, in a pitchers' battle between Herb Pennock and Jim Bagby. It was Bagby's twenty-ninth victory of the season. Approximately 27,000 witnessed the game.

JIM BAGBY.

Bagby held Boston to four hits, two of which were made by Hooper, first up in the first and third innings.

Pennock had the Indians at his mercy except in the sixth. After Wambsganss had lined to Scott, Speaker doubled to right. Smith duplicated the hit, scoring Speaker. Gardner sent a weak grounder to Pennock, who threw him out. Then Johnston singled and Smith completed the circuit. Score:

"THE UNTAMED."
Produced by Fox.
Presented at the Rose.
THE CAST.
"Whistling Dan"..... Tom Mix
Haines..... Philo McCullough
Jim Silent..... George Siegman
The Girl..... Pauline Stark

By Mae Tinee.

I'm afraid this is a pretty bad picture.

We don't mind being kidded along a little bit, but we don't like 'em to rub it in, do we? And "The Untamed" certainly taxes one's credulity and one's patience as it meanders on its peculiar way, making an awful lot of fuss about nothing at all. Reckon Mr. Mix was sick when he first saw it. For the man, it seems, has sense—which "The Untamed" hasn't.

Mr. Mix is supposed to be untamed, because when he gets riled his eyes turn yellow. That is, in the picture. Another queer thing about him—he is always whistling. His whistle terrorizes his enemies. The yellowing eyes of him almost finish them. He himself does the rest.

Mr. Mix shows no particular enthusiasm during the picture—for which he cannot be blamed. George Siegman as the chief foe is a fine actor in an impossible rôle. Philo McCullough as the enemy's right hand man is good. Pauline Stark is adorable as the girl in the case.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

I want to be the medium through which the friend in deed and the friend in need may be brought together. It may be you have some discarded article which has not outgrown its usefulness that will make some less fortunate one happy, and you would gladly give it if you knew how to go about it. Write to me and I shall be only too happy to be of service to you. Please write on one side of the paper.

When information is wanted by mail a stamped, addressed envelope should accompany the request. Please do not send parcels to The Tribune, but write for the address of the applicant and send direct.

Wants Perforated Patterns.

"Several years ago I started a picture bedspread, flowers, animals, birds, vines, etc., in outline. Do you think any of the readers of this corner would have any perforated patterns they could let me use? My girl is 15 years old and not strong since she had the flu. She reads a great deal and would like to exchange books with others who enjoy reading. I thank you many times for your help. W. N. W."

Do you want a clear skin?

If your skin is not fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, here is an easy, inexpensive way to clear it: Just wash your face with and warm water, rubbing the lather in gently with the finger tips. Rinse with warm water and finish with a dash of cold. Do this regularly, once a day, and see if it does not quickly soothe and cleanse the pores, lessen the tendency to pimples, and leave the complexion clear, fresh and velvety. Resinol Soap is sold by all druggists.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Although free silver may be a dead issue with the politicians, it is not so with the designers of autumn clothes. The.e are free to the point of lavishness with their silver embroidery and silver cloth.

Particularly in the three piece costumes of velvet and duvetyn and even of navy serge is the prodigality shown. Here silver embroidery of coat and skirt often combines with a whole bodice of silver cloth. Sometimes, too, the coat itself is lined with silver cloth.

The three piece costume of black duvetyn shown today illustrates the effectiveness of silver and black embroidery on one of the new short, loose little coats. This is otherwise trimmed with gray squirrel. The skirt shows a slight fullness at the side, and the bodice is a short sleeved, round necked affair of silver cloth attached to the skirt with silver and black embroidery.

Too Much Candor.

My traveling companion had been carrying an old black bag which barely held together. I had told her that she would have to carry a different piece of baggage if she were going to travel with me, but it made no impression.

One early morning we sat down in a small waiting room on a branch line station in central Oregon. Next to me was an old black bag with which I began to fumble. Finally I put my finger through a rip in the side and began to pull out some wearing apparel and at the same time turned to my friend and said: "Pauline, you certainly ought to be ashamed of yourself to carry such a ramshackle contraption as this bag is."

"I beg your pardon," said a woman seated on the other side of me, "but that is my bag." C. N. D.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

JANE: DEFECTIVE EYES MAY be the result of defective physical condition, since the eyes are strengthened and nourished by the blood. But, generally speaking, faulty methods of using them are to blame for eye troubles. Why bother with the fine needlework till after you are settled in your home? You will have time on your hands and be glad to have work to do. Doing this fine work at night is trying after a day poring over book ledgers.

MRS. P. Q.: THE BEST AUTHORities on reducing recommend much water consumption. Water should be used to fight the disturbance in circulation. For the faint and gone feeling the person reducing should take a drink of water to increase the volume of blood.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Ways to Cook Cucumber.

The larger of the pickling cucumbers serve a better purpose used as a vegetable than rendered foodless by vinegar. Large or fat almost ripe cucumbers are also good. They have a flavor cooked that many prefer to any of the marrows and some of the squashes.

Stewed Cucumber.—Peel cucumbers carefully, removing but the thinnest shaving. Cut in quarters and remove the seeds, then cut the rest in dice. Cook them in a tiny bit of water over a minimum fire in a small, covered, aluminum kettle. Season with salt alone, or add a bit of onion and celery, both chopped fine, for seasoning.

When cooked serve with butter, or put through a sieve and use as a basis for a cream soup. Some people will consider it far more delicious if cooked in meat stock instead of water.

Stewed Cucumber Salad. — Season the stewed cucumber well if for salad. When it is cold serve with a French dressing. Canned cucumber can be used for a salad like this or heated up in butter.

Cucumber Cutlets.—Cut off the ends and peel short bulky cucumbers. Cut into three equal portions and drop into boiling water. Blanch for five minutes, but not long enough to loosen the seeds. Drain and cool a little, then dip in slightly beaten egg yolk, then in cracker crumbs. Sauté gently in butter, turning in about five minutes. This may be served with a sauce.

Cucumber may be used in almost any of the vegetable marrow receipts from plain boiled whole to mixtures with onion and sweet pepper seasonings. People who fancy the raw cucumber is not wholesome, because they see it in unwholesome ways, may like the delicious flavors of our garden cucumbers when cooked and hot, that is, if the cooking is such that the flavors are retained.

Paleface, This Week the Red Man Holds His Celebration

The first Indian Fellowship league celebration will be held at Deer Grove forest preserve, at Palatine, an old hunting ground of the Indians, next Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Representatives from fourteen tribes of Indians, all the way from Minnesota to Oklahoma, will be here for the celebration.

WALTER BETTICE.

Friday has been designated by the Illinois legislature as "American Indian day," to be observed throughout the state with appropriate exercises in commemoration of the American Indians. Two hundred Indians of Chicago and environs will celebrate the day with special ceremonies.

Saturday and Sunday the various tribes in costume will conduct their ceremonials. A big fire will glow in the natural amphitheater at Camp Reinberg at night, and a circle of Indians will give their "harvest dance" as in olden times. There will be speeches by a number of prominent men.

MILFORD G. CHANDLER.

The Indian Fellowship league is an organization fostered by the Chicago Historical society, a number of whose members are also members of the Indian Fellowship league. Its purpose is to bring the American Indian and the white race together for more cordial relations.

Milford G. Chandler, who has lived among the Indians and has an "adopted" Pottawattomie father and mother and an "adopted" Pawnee brother, is president. Walter Bettice, a full blooded Sac and Fox Indian, whose real name is "Sheet Lightning," is vice president. Miss Caroline MacIlvane is secretary.

High Wages Keep Children at Work

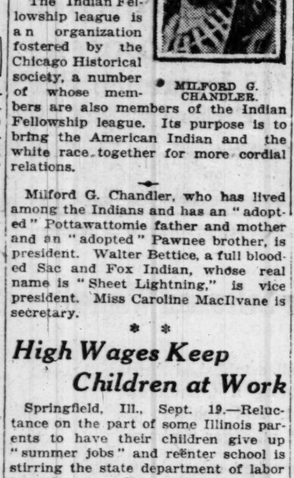

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 19.—Reluctance on the part of some Illinois parents to have their children give up "summer jobs" and reënter school is stirring the state department of labor to action, according to Barney Cohen director of the department. Numerous cases are reported to the department, he says, where parents insist that an extra week or two be given in order that the student may earn enough extra money to buy a pair of shoes or some clothing.

High wages are held responsible for this situation, but the department is pointing out emphatically to parents that the loss to their children in schooling is of far greater consideration than the earning of a few more dollars, and no efforts are being spared in bringing the recalcitrant parents to proper appreciation of their duty.

Start Christmas Fund for Marines

Plans for a Merry Christmas for marines stationed in Haiti and Santo Domingo are already being made by the United States Marine Corps league. All are asked to remember that the marines have been steadily on duty in the revolt torn islands since 1915. All gifts should be sent to the recruiting office at 454 South State street. Tobacco, books and candy are suggested as suitable presents.

Wife of Gov. Cox Attends Wedding of Eleanor West

Lenox, Mass., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Mrs. James M. Cox, wife of the Democratic nominee for president, attended the wedding in Pittsfield yesterday of Miss Eleanor Ogden West and Perry Melville Shepard of Chicago. Her wish to avoid publicity was the reason she was not in the list of those present. Mrs. Cox started tonight for Cleveland. During her stay in Pittsfield she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. West of Court Hill.

The service was read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Norman M. Hutton of Chicago. The bride wore the wedding gown which was worn thirty years ago by her mother, formerly Miss Anna S. Ogden of Chicago, and by her older sister, Miss Fanny Ogden West, when she was married to Donald F. McPherson.

The bride's two attendants, Mrs. John Root and Mrs. James B. Forgan Jr. of Chicago, wore Nile green georgette dresses with dark brown velvet hats and carried branches of red barberries. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. Shepard started on an automobile trip for their honeymoon. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at 999 Lake Shore drive, Chicago.

Among the guests were the bridegroom's mother and brother, Mrs. Henry Martyn Shepard and Stuart G. Shepard, who acted as best man; Mr. and Mrs. John V. Farwell, Mrs. Treat Campbell, Mrs. Cyrus Bentley, Mrs. C. K. Pomeroy, the Misses Emily and Eliza Rumsey, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Walker, and Miss Emily Larned.

NEW SONG BIRDS FOR THE CHICAGO OPERA THIS YEAR

Virtually all of the Chicago Grand Opera company's former artists have been reëngaged for the coming season, according to the announcement of Herbert M. Johnson, director of the company. In addition many new ones have been signed. Among these is Rose Lutiger-Gannon, contralto. The company will begin the season in Milwaukee on Oct. 18, and after the Chicago and New York engagements will sing in cities on the Pacific coast.

WOODCHUCKS

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Farmers are killing woodchucks by fumigating their burrows with gas or smoke from the exhaust pipe of an automobile engine. This method has been found 100 per cent efficient.

In describing the test, the adviser said:

"An automobile was backed up to the woodchuck's nest, a small pipe about four or five feet long with a rubber hose attached to the end was placed over the muffler. Then we put the hose in the main entrance leading to the tunneled nest and packed dirt around it to prevent the escape of gas. The engine was run for about five minutes, until the smoke or gas came out freely from the other holes. It is sometimes necessary to plug up some of the openings where the gas is escaping in order to force the smoky material up through the other outlets and fumigate all parts of the nest thoroughly.

"To make sure that our testing was being done properly, about a dozen nests were treated in this way. All the holes were carefully covered with dirt to make the nest smoke tight. Two days after this operation we examined the holes to see if any of them had been dug out. They were just as we had left them—no signs of living woodchucks were in evidence. Then we dug into several nests and in each case one or more dead woodchucks were found. I am convinced this is sure death to the animals where the gas is given as above."

This is the most effective way of destroying large colonies. Shooting and trapping are two common ways of killing them where they appear in small numbers.

Now Old Harvard Has Women's Course; It's for Teachers

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 19.—The graduate school of education, a new department of Harvard university, established with a $2,000,000 endowment fund, will open next week. The school will train men and women for positions as school superintendents, principals, and teachers, and will conduct research in problems of education.

It will be the first time women have been admitted to any regular department of Harvard, and the first time women have been allowed to become candidates for Harvard degrees.

Among the novel features of the new school will be a special extension course in the education of the blind, said to be the first of its kind in any American university.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

Let Him Free.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 17 and am considered a very pretty girl. I have a good disposition, which wins many friends for me. I have been going with a boy of 18 for over a year and am beginning to dislike him. Several days ago I met a young fellow about three years older than I, whom I like much better. He seems to care for me, but he does not know that I have been keeping steady company. He has asked me to go steady with him. I would like to go with this young man but I do not like to hurt my former sweetheart's feelings by giving him up, as he loves me dearly. He has often told me how much he cares for me, and has always treated me lovely. I am leaving it to you to tell me the best way out of this, and hope that you will not fail to answer me.

"H. O."

The best way out is the quickest. Do not prolong the hopes of No. 1. Let him free to bestow his affections where they will be more welcome. Nor need you be afraid of breaking his heart or otherwise damaging him for life, because youth recuperates quickly from heart attacks. And it is the fair way to treat him.

STOCK MARKET'S TONE IMPROVES; OPTIMISM RULES

The New York Times.

New York, Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Stocks have been going up the last few days, money has had the appearance of being easier, and sentiment, that indefinable something which is supposed to have so much to do with the course of the stock market, unquestionably is improving.

Two weeks ago there were a good many doubters of the market's ability to rise; one week ago there were not so many, and at the close of last week there were few. And there can be no doubt that professional sentiment, in a market as narrow as the one we have been having and are likely to continue having for some little time to come, plays an important part. The men whose business it is to buy and sell stocks may be of slight consequence in times of real market activity, but in times of relative dullness they can accomplish quite a lot.

Public Interest Big Factor.

Whether this improved feeling will be communicated to the outside public with sufficient force to attract that public into the market is another matter, and if this does not happen it is difficult to believe that the professionals, alone and unaided, can sustain anything even remotely resembling a bull market. But if only a comparatively small portion of the public is attracted on the long side the chances are that prices will continue to rise for the next few weeks.

There were some slight evidences of an outside interest the closing days of last week and it is not improbable that, with money coming down, as it surely is for the time being, there will be more this present week. But the speculation is more likely to be spotty than general.

In the industrial list the oil shares continue to hold their own and the appetite for securities of this classification does not appear to be abating. The steel stocks always have a certain following and the equipments, assuming that the interstate commerce commission will soon become more lenient in the matter of permitting the railroads to meet the money market for the purposes of replenishing their rolling stock, should receive some advertising which may be helpful marketwise. Then there are the specialties. Whenever the public comes in, no matter how lightly, there are specialties which are bought.

Rail Auguries Hopeful.

As far as the railroad department is concerned, the action to the market on Friday and again at Saturday's short session augurs well for the immediate future. A rumor, not substantiated by anything or anybody of the slightest responsibility, to the effect that Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western, as part of its reorganization scheme, was to take in Erie and Nickel Plate sent the two latter stocks shooting upwards.

The psychology of this was plain. Wall street, along with the rest of the country, has been talking of "regional mergers" ever since the new railroad legislation was suggested. After the legislation became law, there was more talk, but all of it was vague and none of it got anywhere. However, the idea stuck.

Now comes a suggestion which appears logical if one does not care to analyze it too closely. Furthermore, there is the chance that something may come of it. D., L. & W. may not absorb Erie—there would be a good many surprised persons if it did—but something of the sort may be worked out in the general scheme for rehabilitating the carriers, and something else may be worked out for other railroad combinations.

Money Market a Puzzle.

The money market is a puzzle. Last week, with a big turnover on Wednesday, there was not a ripple on the surface of the money market, although great movements were going on underneath. Time funds, which still were scarce, eased quotably, and money brokers were inclined to the belief that even the lower quotations were artificially high, taking into consideration the extremely light demand for accommodation for the fixed periods.

Call money, of course, was plentiful, as was to be expected, for the tax payment checks always are slow in being cleared and the banks usually have the use of funds for several days longer than otherwise would be the case.

But why time money should be easier at this particular stage of the fall is not clear. The peak of the crop moving season should be at least a fortnight off, with the December demand still to be reckoned with, and the week-end bank statements indicated the interior still is drawing heavily on New York, as witness the reserve bank's huge loss through the settlement fund.

Why, then, is money coming down? Perhaps it is because business is slowing down more rapidly than was generally supposed. The bank clearings and other barometers indicate that some contraction has taken place, but hardly enough to make much difference in the demand for funds. Also, the federal reserve banks still are lending heavily to member banks.

LABOR'S UNREST DISTURBS LONDON STOCK MARKET

BY MANFRED EMANUEL.

[By Special Cable.]

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The barometer of the stock exchange has risen and fallen with the changes in the labor outlook.

At the opening last week's markets were distinctly dull. There was no accumulation of buying orders left over from the preceding week's end.

Even the gilt-edged securities and the oil shares became depressed because of the apparent deadlock in the efforts to avert a coal mine strike.

By the middle of the week there was a more hopeful view of things, and at the week's close there was a cheerful tone evident through most of the list. Business, however, has been on an extremely small scale.

Mexican issues of all kinds again have been the star feature, government bonds rising sharply. The demand has been considerable.

Industrial shares, of course, followed the trend of the negotiations to avert the coal mine strike. Swift rallies were made as the situation became easier in that regard.

Rubber shares seem "doomed." The price of the commodity has fallen to a low record, and even that does not seem to stimulate the demand.

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Foreign Loan.

A. S. J.—The St. Paul railway's European loan of 1910 was originally an unsecured issue of 250,000,000 francs. In 1913 it and other unsecured issues came under the general and refunding mortgage then created. In 1915, when the French government had gathered together foreign securities held by its citizens, the St. Paul company offered to buy these bonds. To provide the money it created an issue of dollar bonds to be secured by deposit of franc bonds at the rate of 500 francs to $96.3533. Under this arrangement a little more than $35,000,000 of dollar bonds had been issued up to Dec. 31, 1918, secured by franc bonds at the rate of 5.19 francs to the dollar. At the present rate of exchange 5.19 francs are worth only about 35 cents. Inasmuch as the bonds are the obligation of the company, this temporary low value of the collateral is a distinction rather than a difference, but it may be the reason the bonds sell lower than similar bonds directly secured under the mortgage. Or the reason may be that more franc bonds are received from time to time and more dollar bonds issued.

CORN PRICES AT LOWEST OF YEAR; WEATHER FACTOR

BY CHARLES S. MICHAELS.

Coarse grain markets have been feeling the effect of public sentiment rather than any speculative influence. The aggressive buying of corn on the part of the public, which was so noticeable during the war and for a year after the armistice was signed, has been absent the last few months. The result is prices have declined sharply and the readjustment to a lower level is not completed as yet, as a majority of traders see it.

There is a huge amount of coarse grains available this season. The Oct. 1 government crop report on corn is expected to show a higher figure than the 3,131,000,000 bu shown in the September returns, although the final results in December will in all probability be under those of October. Even an estimated crop of 3,200,000,000 bu in October would not constitute a record, as in 1917 the forecast yield was 3,221,000,000 bu and final returns were 3,065,000,000 bu. In 1919 the October estimate was 2,717,000,000 bu and the final returns 200,000,000 bu in excess of that. In 1917, however, frost early in October damaged the crop.

Weather conditions are expected to be a dominating influence in temporarily shaping the course of the market during the next few weeks. A continuation of dry and warm weather would force the crop along to maturity at a rapid rate. Private reports suggest 90 per cent of the grain will be matured by Oct. 1 and safe from killing frost. Already the greater part of the Dakotas and Wisconsin are safe. Illinois and Iowa, however, are more spotted and these states will in all probability have more or less soft grain.

Corn Trade Bearish.

After making allowance for a liberal carryover of old grain the corn situation cannot be construed as other than bearish from a statistical and financial standpoint, especially after the reduction of 4,000,000 hogs, or 8.9 per cent, as compared with 1919 is taken into consideration.

Corn closed Saturday with net losses of 9¼@12¼c as compared with the previous week, with September at $1.25¼, December $1.08, and May at $1.08½.

Mills Must Buy Wheat.

A rather peculiar situation prevails in wheat. The states east of the Mississippi river this year generally raised small crops and the bulk of the surplus grain has already been moved from farms, the greater part going to the seaboard for export. Mills allowed much relatively cheap wheat to get away from them, looking for lower prices, and are now in the market for supplies at an unusually early period. Kansas, Nebraska, and Oklahoma now hold the bulk of the winter wheat surplus and farmers in these states are reluctant sellers.

Based on the figures on consumption and distribution presented by the United States Grain corporation as the result of its operations in wheat covering the period of 1917 to 1919, the United States has an exportable surplus of 190,000,000 bu this year after allowing 50,000,000 bu for carry over. This is the lowest figure so far, but some allowance may have to be made for decreased consumption and the amounts fed on the farms.

The various estimates as to world's import requirements show a difference of 150,000,000 bu between the extremes, and while part of the figures must from necessity be theoretical, there is sufficient evidence to show the supply is closely adjusted to requirements, and any accident in the southern hemisphere would be quickly reflected in the price in this country.

Wheat closed with net losses of 7@7¾c, as compared with the previous week, with December at $2.40 and March at $2.35½. Range of prices the last week follows:

	December	March

Oats Market in Rut.

With a record crop of oats in North America this year, around 2,058,000,000 bu, sufficient weight has been put on the market in the way of hedging sales to depress values to new low figures on the crop. When everything is considered the market has shown stubborn resistance to selling pressure, and with a fairly liberal short interest the development of export business might bring about short covering, but as a majority of traders see it there is more than enough grain to go around this season and upturns will probably prove only temporary.

Prices had a range of 3⅜@4¼c the last week, and closed with net losses of 2⅝@3⅝c with September at 60c, December at 63¼c, and May at 66¼c. Prices for the week follow:

	September.	December.	May.

Removal of hedges against export and domestic sales of lard and meats advanced provision prices sharply the last week. The development in volume of export business in the face of a decline in exchange was rather surprising, but Europe had not been buying for some time and was in need of supplies. This is normally the season when importing countries begin to buy for fall and winter requirements, and were there a plentiful supply of cars stocks here might be reduced considerably between now and Oct. 1. Packers have frequently expressed the view that the bulk of the lard available for export was in the show windows.

Pork closed with a net gain of $2.25@2.45, as compared with the previous week, while lard is up 97½c@$1.05 and short ribs 97½c@$1.02. Prices follow:

French, Indeed, Are Blouses!

BLOUSES that carry with them the unmistakable atmosphere of the country from which they come, are these lovely French creations. Dainty colored Overblouses of sheer crepe Georgette or crepe de Chine have solid patches or bands of cut yarn in beautiful colors, while others have hand-painted motifs in conventional designs. Two are sketched.

An Irresistible Air of Youth Pervades Autumn Frocks and Suits

AS Autumn and new clothes are, with most women, synonymous, those who take pleasure in being suitably and seasonably dressed are now planning Fall wardrobes. Frocks and Suits invite selection with lines which are youthfully slender, materials unusually soft and fine, and myriad lovely colors. Other attractive Suits from $57.50, up. Fur-trimmed, from $75, up.

Fall Frocks of Quaint Designs

RUFFLE on ruffle and tucked under skirts are delightful features of the afternoon Frock. Soft duvetyn and kitten's ear crepe are among the season's most favored fabrics.

Women's Frocks, Sixth Floor, South, State.

Charming Suits Are These for Every Occasion

TRUE to the newest Autumn lines these faultlessly tailored Suits combine service and distinction with enduring charm. The materials are varied, and many have smart touches of soft fur. These Suits are all of fine, dependable qualities which make them excellent values for their prices.

Left—This Suit of duvet de laine is elaborately trimmed with braid and bands of French seal. It has the new ripple coat which is finding unusual favor this season. Brown, suchow, navy, $97.50.

Right—Attractive stitching trims the Suit of duvet de laine. A high nutria collar adds greatly to its charm. May be had in brown, navy and reindeer, $97.50.

Lines, of Course, But Especially Unique Trimming

Makes the New Coats and Wraps So Distinctive

ONE lovely Wrap, for instance, of Marvella cloth, has a deep cape stitched in a crisscross fashion, with silk floss. And where the lines of stitching cross, they are studded with tiny cloth covered buttons. Shown at the right, $195. A Coat of veldecyne, with generous opossum collar, has chenille stitching, a prominent feature of the new trimming, on side panel and cuffs. Shown at left, $195.

Stitched or Tailored Wraps and Coats, $67.50 to $195
Fur-trimmed, from $87.50 up

Many of the new materials, such as irenella, kezar, ondulette, graciella, veldyne, corduvel and Kashmere kord cloth, make the Coats and Wraps in this attractive range of prices. Those without fur invariably have deep, comfortable collars and stitching of chenille or silk floss, while others are tailored with embroidered arrow-heads. Those with fur show Hudson seal (dyed muskrat), French seal, mole, beaver, raccoon, opossum and nutria, in luxurious high-fastening collars.

Gift Secretary Finds Just the Right Gift

SHE was a girl starting for college and her bachelor uncle wanted to give her something she would really love to have. It must be something she had always wanted, something "different." One day he chanced to notice the little note about the services of the Gift Secretary and instantly the puzzle was solved. He confided in the Secretary. She wrote to the girl asking for a list of what she wanted. The response was prompt. Very soon he had real inside information and the girl went off with the gift she wanted most in the world.

Creating Standards

SERVICE that would have been thought impossible a generation ago is a commonplace of this Store today.

Comforts that once were considered luxuries, and luxuries once looked upon as extravagance, have been put within the reach of the residents of this metropolis.

It has been the consistent policy of this Store to create standards—to make life livable and lovely—to lift living to a higher plane.

We take pride not in size, but in service.

The Silk Industry was encouraged in the 15th Century by Lorenzo de Medici, to whose brilliant court the splendor of Renaissance Silks greatly contributed.

New Silks and Velvets

THE beauty of texture, design and color in the new Silks and Velvets is the culmination of centuries of artistic effort. At one time hand-woven, these fabrics were possible only to court circles. Modern invention and industry have brought them within the range of all, until today we find them an almost imperative need in every woman's wardrobe.

SILKS VELVETS DUVETYN

For Frocks, Wraps, Suits, Blouses, Negligees, Undergarments, Millinery

Directly from European markets come many of the new Silks, personally selected there by our representative. Every ravishing color and fascinating new weave is presented. The arrangement and certain remodeling of the Section provide every convenience for selection, in natural and artificial lights.

Le Salon des Debutantes

YOUTH, joyous, insouciant, finds complete expression in this exclusive room where the Debutante chooses her Millinery. From season to season she comes here with the certainty of finding the very first hint of Fashion's caprice.

Every piquant mode in artistry of line and color, every bit of witchery in fabric or style or trimming, is first reflected in the Hats in this room, be they wide, "droopy" modes, so delightfully becoming to the youthful face, or small jaunty tams and turbans, with their irrepressible sauciness.

The equipment of the room, the young women in attendance, its atmosphere of naive grace, are all in keeping with the spirit of Youth itself.
